President

21/12/93

An Act to amend the Appellate Jurisdiction Act, 1979.

ENACTED by the Parliament of the United Republic of Tanzania.

1. This Act may be cited as the Appellate Jurisdiction (Amendment) Act, 1993 and shall be read as one with the Appellate Jurisdiction Act, 1979 herein after referred to as "the principal Act".

Short title

2. The "principal Act is hereby amended by deleting subsection (2) of section 4 and substituting for it the following new subsections:

Amendment of Section 4

"(2) for all purposes of and incidental to the hearing and determination of any appeal in the exercise of the jurisdiction conferred upon it by this Act, the Court of Appeal shall, in addition to any other power, authority and jurisdiction conferred by this Act, have the power of revision and the power, authority and jurisdiction vested in the court from which the appeal is brought.

(3) Without prejudice to subsection (2), the Court shall have the power, authority and jurisdiction to call for and examine the record of any proceedings before the High Court for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the correctness, legality or propriety of any finding, order or any other decision made thereon and as to the regularity of any proceedings of the High Court.

(4) The Court may for reasons specified in this Act, the rules or any other law for the time being in force providing for appeals to the court; summarily reject any appeal.

(5) The power conferred upon the Court by subsection (4) of this section and the power to examine the record of any proceedings pursuant to subsection (3), shall not be exercised by a single judge”.
