A commodity exchange shall provide such assistance as the Authority may reasonably require, including the furnishing of returns and the provision of information, documents or reports relating to the business of the company or any other specified information for the proper administration of this Act.

21. The Authority may, if it considers it necessary or expedient-
   (a) for ensuring fairness, transparency and efficiency of transactions under this Act;
   (b) for ensuring the integrity of, and proper management of systemic risks in the commodity exchanges trading;
   (c) for ensuring a fair and proper governance structure of the intermediaries and participants;
   (d) for the protection of investors, or
   (e) to meet its objectives under the Act, by notice in writing, issue directives of a general or specific nature to a commodity exchange, and the commodity exchange shall comply with any such directives.

22. The directives issued under section 21 may relate to-
   (a) the trading, settlement, or clearing or the termination of trading, settlement or clearing on or through the facilities of the commodity exchange as the case may be;
   (b) any commodity contracts deposited or settled through the facilities of the commodity exchange as the case may be;
(c) the manner in which a commodity exchange carries on its business, including the manner of reporting transactions carried out by the commodity exchange;
(d) the removal of the Chief Executive or officer from an office of, or employment by a commodity exchange; or
(e) any other matter that the Authority considers necessary for the effective administration of this Act.

23. The Authority may if it is satisfied that an officer of a commodity exchange-

(a) has knowingly contravened this Act or any regulations made thereunder or the rules of the commodity exchange; or
(b) has without reasonable justification or excuse, failed to enforce compliance with such provisions by its member or clients or a person associated with that member or client, as the case may be,
and if it deems it necessary in the public interest or for the protection of investors, and after giving such officer, an opportunity of being heard, censure the officer of a commodity exchange or direct by notice in writing that the commodity exchange remove from office or employment, the officer, and the commodity exchange shall comply with the directive.

24. A commodity exchange which, without reasonable excuse, fails or refuses to comply with a direction given under section 21, commits an offence and upon conviction is liable to a fine of not less than five million Tanzania shillings and in addition, every director and every officer of the commodity exchange who is in such contravention is liable to a fine of not less than one million or imprisonment for a term of not less than one year, unless such director or officer proves that such contravention occurred without his knowledge or consent, except that such defence shall not be available, if having regard to the duties of his office, the director or officer ought to have known of the contravention.
Appeals against Authority’s directive

A commodity exchange that is aggrieved by any direction of the Authority under section 21 may appeal to the Tribunal within thirty days of the date of the direction.

PART VI

COMMODITY EXCHANGES DISCIPLINARY MEASURES AND ADMINISTRATIVE AND EMERGENCY POWERS OF THE AUTHORITY

Notification of disciplinary action to the Authority

Where a commodity exchange takes any disciplinary action in accordance with its rules, it shall within seven days of taking such action, inform the Authority in writing of the nature, reasons and measures for the action taken.

Review, affirmation etc of a disciplinary action by Authority

The Authority shall review any disciplinary action taken under section 26 and may affirm, modify or set aside the decision after giving the parties concerned in the dispute an opportunity of being heard.

Authority’s intervention where disciplinary action is not taken

Nothing in this Part shall preclude the Authority, in any case where the commodity exchange fails to act against a trading member, from suspending, expelling or otherwise disciplining a member, but before doing so the Authority shall give the member and the commodity exchange an opportunity to be heard.

Action by Commodity exchange not to prejudice power of Authority

Any action taken by a commodity exchange under section 26 shall be without prejudice to the power of the Authority to take such further action as it deems fit with regard to the member or the licence of the commodity exchange.

Appeals for disciplinary actions of the commodity exchange Cap. 79

Any person who is aggrieved by the decision of a commodity exchange under this section may, within thirty days after the notification of the decision, appeal to the Authority and where the decision is made by the Authority, the appeal shall lie to the Tribunal established under the Capital Markets and Securities Act.

Emergency powers of the Authority

Where the Authority has reason to believe that an emergency exists, or where the Authority considers it necessary or expedient for the protection of market participants or to meet its objectives under the Act and maintain or restore fairness, transparency and efficiency in the transaction carried out by a commodity exchange the Authority may, by notice in writing, direct the commodity exchange to take such action as it considers necessary to-

(a) liquidate any position in respect of any commodity contracts;
(b) maintain or restore fairness, transparency and efficiency in the transactions carried out by the company; or
(c) liquidate any position in respect of any commodity contracts, including but not limited to-

(i) terminating or suspending any transaction;
(ii) confining trading to liquidation of commodity contract positions;
(iii) ordering the liquidation of all positions or part thereof or the reduction in such positions;
(d) limiting trading to a specific price range;
(e) modifying trading days or hours;
(f) altering conditions of delivery;
(g) fixing the settlement price at which positions are to be liquidated;
(h) requiring any person to act in a specified manner in relation to trading in securities or any class thereof;
(i) requiring margins or additional margins for any commodity contract or any class thereof; and
(j) modifying or suspending any of the rules of the company, and the commodity exchange shall comply with that direction.

(2) In this Part, “emergency” means-
(a) an act of government affecting commodity contracts;
(b) any other major market disturbance which prevents the market from accurately reflecting the forces of supply and demand of commodity contracts;
(c) a threatened or actual market manipulation; or
(d) any other situation or practice which in the opinion of the Authority constitutes an emergency.

(3) Where the Authority suspends trading under subsection (c(i), the suspension shall be for a period not exceeding three months.

(4) Where a commodity exchange fails to comply with a direction of the Authority under subsection (1), within such time as is specified by the Authority the Authority may-

(a) set emergency margin levels in any contract or any class of thereof;

(b) set limits that may apply to market positions acquired in good faith prior to the date of the Authority’s direction; or

(c) take such other action as the Authority considers necessary to maintain or restore orderly trading in any contract or any class thereof.

32.-(1) A commodity exchange that fails to comply with the direction of the Authority issued under section 31 commits an offence and the Authority may, depending on the gravity or the consequence of such failure, impose any of the following administrative sanctions-

(a) warning or caution not to repeat the conduct which led to non-compliance;

(b) a reprimand;

(c) directive to take remedial action or to make specific arrangement to remedy the default;

(d) restrict or suspend certain business activities;

(e) suspend a license; or

(f) suspend or remove from office any member of staff who caused the failure to comply.

(2) Before imposing an administrative sanction, the Authority shall give the defaulting person a notice in writing of the-

(a) nature of the alleged non-compliance;

(b) intention to impose administrative sanction; and

(c) amount or particulars of the intended administrative sanction.

(3) The defaulting person may, in writing, within a period specified in the notice, make representations as to why the administrative sanctions should not be imposed.

(4) When determining an appropriate administrative sanction, the Authority shall consider the following:
(a) the nature, duration, seriousness and extent of the default;
(b) whether the defaulting person has previously failed to comply with any written laws; and
(c) any remedial steps taken against by the defaulting person to prevent a recurrence.
(5) Where the Authority has imposed sanctions under this section, and the defaulting person fails to comply with such sanctions, the Authority shall impose a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand shillings per day for which a default continues to be committed
(6) Where an offence under this Act or under any regulation made by the Authority under this Act is proved to have been committed by a commodity exchange with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of an officer of the commodity exchange, that officer as well as the commodity exchange shall be liable for that offence.

(7) In this section “officer” means a director, shadow director, member of the committee or management, chief executive, manager, secretary, or any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity.

PART VII
REVOCATION OF COMMODITY EXCHANGE’S LICENCES

(1) The Authority may, by notice in writing served on a commodity exchange, revoke a licence granted under this Act if the commodity exchange-
(a) fails to operate in accordance with the conditions of the licence;
(b) ceases to operate the business for which the licence was granted;
(c) ceases to have in place satisfactory facilities for the business of commodity exchange operations;
(d) is being wound up;
(e) fails to comply with a directive of the Authority;
(f) fails to provide the Authority with information required or provides false or misleading information;
(g) is operating in a manner detrimental to the interests of commodity market; or
(h) requests the Authority to do so.

34.-(1) For the purpose of this Part a commodity exchange shall be deemed to have ceased to operate if-

(a) it has ceased to operate its business for more than thirty days unless it has obtained the prior written approval of the Authority to do so; or
(b) it has ceased to operate under a direction issued by the Authority.

(2) The Authority may by the notice served under subsection (1) permit a commodity exchange to continue, on or after the date on which the revocation is to take effect, to carry on such activities affected by the revocation as the Authority may specify in the notice for the purpose of-

(a) closing down the operations of the commodity exchange; and
(b) protecting the interests of investors.

(3) The Authority shall, before revoking a licence, afford the commodity exchange an opportunity of being heard.

(3) The provisions of subsection (3) of this section, shall not apply to a commodity exchange revoked in accordance with 30 (1)(h).

(6) Where the Authority revokes the license of a commodity exchange under this section, it shall cause notice of the revocation to be published in a newspaper of wide circulation.

35. A revocation of licence pursuant to the provisions of this Part, shall not affect the execution of any agreement, transaction or arrangement relating to trading in commodity contracts entered into by the commodity exchange where the agreement, transaction or arrangement was entered into before or after the revocation of the licence, and includes any right, obligation or liability arising under such agreement, transaction or arrangement.
PART VIII
APPROVAL OF COMMODITY CONTRACT, WITHDRAWAL AND FIXING OF POSITIONS AND TRADING LIMITS

36.- (1) No commodity exchange shall permit the trading of any commodity contract on a commodity market established or operated by the commodity exchange unless the contract has been approved by the Authority.

(2) The Authority shall not approve a contract unless-

(a) it contains all information as investors and their advisors and their professional advisors would reasonably expect to find for the purpose of making an informed assessment of the commodity and the right and liabilities;

(b) it contains such other information and particulars as may be prescribed by regulations made under this Act.

(3) The Authority may require an application for approval of a commodity contract to be accompanied by an expert opinion regarding any of the information contained in the contract.

(4) The Authority may take into account any other matter that it deems relevant in approving a contract.

(5) The Authority may grant approval for the trading of any commodity contract on the commodity market established or operated by the commodity exchange subject to such conditions or restrictions as the Authority may consider appropriate.

(6) The Authority may, by notice in writing served on the commodity exchange, withdraw its permission given under subsection (1) with effect from the date specified in the notice where-

(a) the commodity exchange fails to comply with a condition or restriction imposed under subsection (5); or

(b) the Authority considers it would be contrary to the interests of the investing public to permit trading in that commodity contract to continue.

(7) The Authority shall not withdraw its permission under subsection (3) without first giving the commodity exchange an opportunity of being heard.

37.- (1) For the purpose of diminishing, eliminating or preventing excessive speculation in any commodity under a commodity contract, the Authority may, by notice in writing fix limits as it considers necessary on the amount of trading or positions which may be held by any person, generally or specifically, under a commodity contract traded on a commodity exchange.

(2) Any limits upon positions and trading shall apply to positions held by, and trading done, by two or more persons acting pursuant to an express or implied agreement or understanding, as if the positions were held by, or the trading done by, a single person.

(3) No person shall, directly or indirectly-
   (a) buy or sell or agree to buy or sell a commodity contract, or any number of such contracts, on a commodity exchange, in excess of the trading limits fixed for one business day, or any other stated period set by the Authority, or by a commodity exchange with the approval of the Authority; or
   (b) hold or control a net buy or sell position under a commodity contract traded on the commodity market of or subject to the rules of a commodity exchange in excess of any position limit fixed by the Authority, or by a commodity exchange with the approval of the Authority.

(3) Nothing in this section shall preclude the Authority from-
   (a) fixing different trading or position limits for different commodity contracts, different delivery months, or for different days remaining until the last day of trading in a commodity contract; or
   (b) exempting transactions under this section.

PART IX
LICENSING OF COMMODITY MARKET INTERMEDIARIES

38.- (1) No person, whether as principal or agent, shall carry on commodity exchange business as a commodity dealer or commodity broker, or hold himself out as carrying on such a business, except under and in accordance with a commodity dealer’s license or commodity broker licence granted by the Authority under this Part.

(2) No person shall carry on commodity exchange business as a commodity trading adviser, or hold himself out as carrying on such a business, except under and in accordance with a commodity trading adviser’s license granted by the Authority under this Part.

(e) from carrying on business in a specified manner or otherwise than in a specified manner; and
(f) to comply with any matter as the Authority considers necessary for the protection of investors, and the licensed person shall comply with such prohibition or requirement.

(3) A prohibition or requirement under this section shall be for a specified period as the Authority may consider necessary and the period may be extended by the Authority as the Authority deems fit.

(4) The Authority may, by written notice, either on its own motion or on the application of the licensed person on whom a prohibition or requirement has been imposed under this section, rescind or vary the prohibition or requirement if it appears to the Authority that it is no longer necessary for the prohibition or requirement to take effect or continue in force or, as the case may be, that it should take effect or continue in force in a different form.

(5) Where the Authority proposes to give a direction under subsection (1), or refuses to vary or rescind the direction under subsection (4), the Authority shall give reasons for its decision and shall give the person concerned a right to be heard before a final decision is made.

(6) Subsection (5) shall not apply where the Authority determines that it is necessary or expedient to meet its objectives that the direction should take effect without delay, in which case, the reasons for the direction shall be furnished and the opportunity to be heard shall be afforded as soon as is reasonably practicable after the direction has taken effect.

46.- (1) The Authority may, by notice in writing, give a licensed person a direction under this section where it appears to the Authority that-

(a) it is desirable for the protection of commodity
exchange participants and investors;
(b) the licensee has contravened or is about to contravene, or has failed to comply with any provision or requirement under this Act or, in purported compliance with any such provision or requirement has furnished the Authority with information that is false, inaccurate or misleading; or
(c) the licensee has engaged in any activity contrary to the interests of investors.
(2) A direction under this section may contain all or any of the following prohibitions or requirements-
(a) cease and desist from the contravention of any activity;
(b) removal of a person from office or employment of the licensee;

47.- (1) The Authority may suspend or revoke a license under this part where-
(a) it has reason to believe that the licensee, or any of its directors or employees has not performed his duties honestly and fairly;
(b) the licensee fails to employ the minimum number of licensed representatives required;
(c) the licensee contravenes or fails to comply with any condition of the license;
(d) the licensee is in breach of this Act or Regulations made under this Act;
(e) the licensee fails to comply with a direction of the Authority;
(f) the licensee fails to pay the prescribed annual fee for a period of two consecutive months following the required date of payment;
(g) the licensee submits a request in writing to the Authority;
(h) the licensee fails to provide the Authority with information required, or provides false or misleading information; or
(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1), the Authority shall revoke a license where the licensee-
(a) is no longer fit and proper to hold a licence.
(b) goes into liquidation, is wound up or is subject to winding up;
(c) fails to pay the prescribed annual fee for a period of thirty consecutive days following the specified date of payment;
(d) ceases to carry on the business for which it is licensed;
(3) Where the Authority suspends a licence under this section, the suspension shall be for a period not exceeding three months and the Authority may, if it considers it necessary, extend the suspension for a further period not exceeding 3 months at the expiry of which the Authority shall either lift the suspension, or revoke the license as it deems appropriate.
(4) For the purposes of this Part, a person shall be deemed to have ceased to carry on the business for which the license is issued where he ceases to carry on the business for more than thirty days without the prior approval of the Authority.
(5) The Authority shall, where it suspends or revokes the license, cause a notice of the said suspension or revocation to be issued to the public through the media.

48.- (1) The revocation or suspension of a licence under this Act does not operate so as to-
(a) avoid or affect an agreement, transaction or arrangement entered into by the licencee on any exchange where the agreement, transaction or arrangement was entered into before the revocation or suspension; and
(b) affect a right, obligation or liability arising under the agreement, transaction or arrangement.
(2) Where a licence is revoked or suspended under this Part, the Authority may by notice in writing and subject to such conditions as the Authority may specify in the notice-
(a) require the licensee to transfer to, or to the order of, its client such records relating to client property or to the affairs of the client held at any time for the client, in such manner, as the Authority may specify in the notice; or
(b) permit the licensee to:
   (i) in the case of a revocation, carry on business operations for the purpose of closing down the business connected with the revocation; or

(ii) in the case of a suspension, carry on only essential business operations for the protection of interests of clients during the period of suspension.

49.- (1) The Authority may, subject to subsection (2), place a defaulting licensee under statutory management where-

(a) the defaulting person’s licence is suspended or revoked under this Act;

(b) a petition is filed, or a resolution made, for the winding up of a licensee, or where any receiver or receiver manager or similar officer is appointed in respect of all or any part of its assets; or

(c) the Authority discovers, whether on an inspection, investigation or otherwise any fact or circumstance which, in the opinion of the Authority, warrants placing of a licensee under statutory management.

(2) The Authority shall give the defaulting licensee an opportunity to be heard prior to the exercise of the powers under this section.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other written law, in any case to which this section applies, the Authority may-

(a) appoint any competent person or persons in this Act referred to as “a statutory manager” to assume the management, control and conduct of the affairs and business of a defaulting licensee to exercise all the powers of a licensee to the exclusion of its board of directors, including the use of its corporate seal;

(b) remove any officer or employee of the defaulting licensee who, in the opinion of the Authority, has caused or contributed to any contravention of any provision of this Act, or to any deterioration in the financial stability of the defaulting licensee or has been guilty of a conduct detrimental to the interests of commodity exchange participants or investors;

(c) appoint a competent person familiar with the business of the defaulting licensee to its board of directors to hold office as a director who shall not be capable of being removed from that office without the approval of the Authority;

(d) by notice in the gazette, revoke or cancel any existing power of attorney, mandate, appointment or other authority by the defaulting licensee in favour of any officer or employee or any other person.

(4) The appointment of a statutory manager shall be for such period as the Authority shall specify in the instrument of appointment save that, in any case, the period referred to in this subsection, shall not exceed six months and may be extended by the Tribunal upon the application of the Authority if such extension appears to the Tribunal to be justified, and any such extension, shall be notified to all interested parties.

(5) A statutory manager shall, upon assuming the management, control and conduct of the affairs and business of a licensee, discharge his duties with diligence and in accordance with sound investment and financial principles and in particular, with due regard to the interests of the defaulting licensee’s customers or investors.

(6) The responsibilities of the statutory manager appointed by the Authority under this part in relation to a defaulting licensee shall include-

(a) tracing and preserving all the property and assets of the said defaulting licensee or of its clients;
(b) recovering all debts and other sums of money due to and owing to the defaulting licensee;
(c) evaluating the capital structure and management of the licensee and recommending to the Authority any restructuring or re-organization which he considers necessary and which, subject to the provisions of any other written law, may be implemented by him on behalf of the defaulting licensee;
(d) entering into contracts in the ordinary course of the business of the defaulting licensee; and
(e) obtaining from any officers or employees of the defaulting licensee, any documents, records, accounts, statements or information relating to its business.

(7) For the purposes of discharging its responsibilities, a statutory manager shall declare a moratorium on the payment by the defaulting licensee to its creditors and the declaration of a moratorium shall-

(a) be applied equally and without discrimination to all classes of creditors and the statutory manager may offset the liabilities owed by the defaulting licensee to any creditor against any debts owed by that creditor to the defaulting licensee; and

(b) suspend the running of time for the purposes of any law of limitation of actions in respect of any claim by a creditor of the defaulting licensee.

(8) A moratorium shall cease to apply upon the termination of the statutory manager’s appointment whereupon the rights and obligations of the defaulting licensee and its creditors shall, save to the extent provided in subsection (6)(b), be the same as if there had been no declaration under the provisions of that subsection.

(9) A moratorium declared by the statutory manager shall not exceed 6 months.

(10) The statutory manager shall, in every month, submit to the Authority and all interested parties a report of his activities undertaken during the preceding month, in such form as may be specified by the Authority.

(11) Any officer or employee of the defaulting licensee removed under the provisions of subsection (3) (b) may appeal to the Tribunal, and the Tribunal may confirm, reverse or modify the decision and make any other order in the circumstances as it deems just; and pending the determination of the appeal or any appeal on the decision of the Tribunal, the order of removal shall remain in effect.

(12) A statutory manager or any other person appointed, designated or approved by the Authority under this Act shall not be liable in respect of any act or omission done in good faith by such manager or person in the execution of the duties undertaken by him.

(13) Where it appears to the statutory manager that it is just and equitable to do so in the interest of all interested parties, the statutory manager may after consultation with the Authority, petition the High Court for the winding up of the defaulting licensee.

(14) All costs and expenses properly incurred by the statutory manager shall be payable out of the assets of the defaulting licensee shall be given priority over all other claims.

50.-(1) The Authority shall maintain a register of licensees in the form it considers appropriate.
   (2) The register shall, for each licensed person, record-
       (a) the name and address of the regulated person;
       (b) the date on which the licence was granted;
       (c) the type of regulated activity permitted by the licence;
       (d) any conditions attached to the licence;
       (e) the name and address of every director, manager and officer, secretary of the company, and the names and respective shareholdings of each shareholder;
       (f) the name and address of every representative;
       (g) the location of the premises at which the records or other documents of the regulated person are kept;
       (h) any order of revocation or suspension; and
       (i) such other particulars as the Authority considers necessary in the interest of the investors or general public.
   (3) The register shall, for each licensee, contain a record of—
       (a) the name and address;
       (b) the date on which the licence was granted;
       (c) the name and address of the principal; and
       (d) such other particulars as the Authority may consider desirable.
   (4) The register shall, subject to a prescribed fee, be open for inspection by members of the public, during usual office hours.

51. A licensee shall as soon as practicable, but not later than seven days, give to the Authority notice in writing where—
   (a) he ceases to carry on the business to which he is licenced for; or
   (b) a change occurs in any matter particulars required under section 39.
PART X
CONDUCT OF BUSINESS

52. A licensee shall at all times act according to the principles of best practice and, in particular, shall-
   (a) observe high standards of integrity and fair dealing;
   (b) act with due skill, care and diligence;
   (c) observe high standards of market conduct;
   (d) seek from its clients information about their circumstances and investment objectives which might reasonably be expected to be relevant in enabling the licensee to fulfil its responsibilities to the client;
   (e) take reasonable steps to give every client that the licensee advises, any information needed in a comprehensible manner to enable the client to make an informed investment decision;
   (f) avoid any conflict of interest with clients and, where such a conflict unavoidably arises, to ensure fair treatment to the client by complete disclosure or by declining to act; furthermore the interests of the market intermediary should never be unfairly placed above those of the client;
   (g) protect properly, by way of segregation and identification, those client assets for which the licensee is responsible;
   (h) maintain adequate financial resources to meet its commodity exchange business commitments and withstand the risks to which the business is subject;
   (i) organise and control its internal affairs in a responsible manner;
   (j) keep proper records;
   (k) have adequate arrangements to ensure that all staff employed are suitable, adequately trained and properly supervised, together with well-defined compliance procedures; and
   (l) deal with the Authority in an open and co-operative manner and keep the Authority informed of anything concerning the licensee that might reasonably be expected to be disclosed.
53.-(1) Without prejudice to section 52, the Authority may make regulations on the conduct of commodity exchange business requiring market intermediaries to comply with such practices and standards relating to their conduct in carrying on the commodity exchange business for which they are licensed.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the Authority may make regulations for or with respect to-

(a) contract notes;
(b) client agreements;
(c) risk disclosure statements;
(d) the use of misleading or deceptive advertisements by or on behalf of a market intermediary;
(e) the disclosure to a client of the financial risks in respect of trading commodity contracts recommended by the market intermediary to the client;
(f) the avoidance of any conflict of interest between the market intermediary and a client;
(g) recommendations made;
(h) the priority to be given to client’s orders;
(i) trading against a client;
(j) cross trading; and
(k) any other matter relating to the practices and standards of conduct required of a market intermediary in conducting the commodity business for which he is licensed.

54. No commodity exchange broker or dealer shall open a commodity trading account for a client unless he-

(a) furnishes the client with a separate written risk disclosure statement which shall be in such form and contain such information as may be prescribed; and
(b) receives from the client an acknowledgement signed and dated by the client that he has received and understood the nature and contents of the risk disclosure statement.

55. No licensee shall act for any client otherwise than in accordance with the terms of a client agreement” which shall contain such matters as may be prescribed in the regulations made by the Authority.
56.-(1) A commodity exchange broker or dealer shall, not later than two business days after any commodity exchange transaction, furnish to its clients a written confirmation of each commodity contract executed on behalf of that client.

(2) A contract confirmation note shall include such information as may be prescribed in the regulations by the Authority.

PART XI
ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

(a) Accounts And Audit of Commodity Exchanges

57.-(1) A commodity exchange shall keep proper books of accounts and records of its income and expenditure, assets and liabilities and all other transactions of the commodity exchange.

(2) The commodity exchange shall, as soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, prepare a statement of the accounts of the commodity exchange for the financial year, including an income and expenditure account and balance sheet.

(3) The commodity exchange shall, within one month after the end of each of its financial years, submit the statement of accounts prepared for the financial year under subsection (2) to its auditors for audit.

(4) The auditors shall prepare a report on the accounts and send the report to the commodity exchange which shall forthwith after its receipt send a copy of the report and a copy of the statement of accounts to the Authority.

(5) The auditors shall include in their report-

(a) a statement whether, in their opinion, the income and expenditure account for the financial year to which the report relates gives a true and fair view of the commodity exchange’s surplus or deficit;

(b) a statement whether, in their opinion, the balance sheet for the financial year gives a true and fair view of the commodity exchange’s financial affairs at the end of that financial year.

(6) The auditors shall have a right of access at all reasonable times to the books, accounts, vouchers and other records of the commodity exchange and are entitled to require from officers of the commodity exchange such information and explanations as they consider necessary for the performance of their duties as auditor.

58. Where the Authority is satisfied that it is in the public interest to do so, it may appoint in writing an auditor at the expense of the commodity exchange to examine, audit, and report, either generally or in relation to any matter, on the books, accounts and records of a commodity exchange.

59.- (1) A Commodity exchange shall, within 3 months after the end of its financial year, give to the Authority an annual report that includes-

(a) a description of the activities undertaken by the commodity exchange in the financial year;

(b) the resources (including financial, technological and human resources) that the commodity exchange had available, and used, in order to ensure compliance with its obligations and, in particular, its obligation to ensure that the commodity market of the commodity exchange operates in a fair, orderly and transparent manner; and

(c) an analysis of the extent to which the commodity exchange considers that the activities undertaken, and resources used, have resulted in full compliance with all of its obligations under this Act, regulations and the rules of the commodity exchange.

(2) The commodity exchange shall ensure that the annual report is accompanied by such other information and statements as may be specified by the Authority.

(3) The annual report shall be accompanied by an audit report where required by the Authority under subsection (4).

(4) The Authority may, by giving written notice to a commodity exchange, require the commodity exchange to obtain an audit report (by a person to be approved by the Authority) on the annual report and on any information or statements accompanying it.
(b) Accounts and Audit of Market Intermediaries

60.- (1) A market intermediary other than a representative, shall keep such accounting and other records as will sufficiently show and explain the transactions (whether effected on its own behalf or on behalf of others) and financial position of its commodity exchange business and shall be such as to-

(a) disclose with reasonable accuracy, at any time, its financial position at that time;
(b) enable it to prepare a true and fair balance sheet and profit and loss account and balance sheet as at any time; and
(c) demonstrate whether it is maintaining in its commodity exchange business adequate financial resources to meet its exchange business requirements and withstand the risks to which its business is subject.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), such accounts and other records shall be maintained as may be prescribed.

(3) The obligations under this Act are continuing obligations and continuous performance of them is required so as to ensure that records are periodically updated.

(4) Information required to be recorded by this Act shall-

(a) be recorded in such a way as to enable a particular trade to be identified at any time and traced through from initiation to of the order to final settlement; and

(b) be arranged, filed, indexed and cross-referenced so as to permit access to any particular record.

(5) The accounting and other records required to be maintained under this section shall be preserved by the market intermediary for a period of not less than five years from the date on which they are made, and shall at all reasonable times be open to inspection by the Authority or by an auditor appointed by the Authority.
61.- (1) For the purpose of this Act, “client assets” means money received or retained by, or any other property deposited with, a market intermediary in the course of his business for which he is liable to account to his client, and any money or other property accruing therefrom.

(2) A commodity exchange broker or dealer shall-
(a) treat and deal with all client assets received by him from a client to margin, guarantee or secure contracts in commodity exchange trading, or accruing to a client as a result of such trading, as belonging to that client; and
(b) deposit in a separate account, designated as a trust account or evidenced as such, for all the client assets received from the client or accruing to the client pursuant to subsection (a);
(c) and shall segregate those client assets from the funds of the commodity exchange broker or dealer.

(3) Without prejudice to section 54, the Authority may make regulations with respect to the segregation and safekeeping of client assets that a market intermediary holds on behalf of a client.

(4) Without limiting the generality of subsection (3), regulations may-
(a) require client money to be paid forthwith into segregated bank accounts established for client money and designated as trust accounts or client accounts;
(b) make provision with respect to the opening and keeping of bank accounts and specify when and how client money is to be paid into such accounts and require it to be dealt with, and accounted for, in the specified manner;
(c) require the maintenance of records in relation to such accounts in the specified manner;
(d) require the submission to the Authority, upon request or at specified intervals, of specified information, records and documents for the purpose of enabling the Authority to ascertain readily whether the regulations are being complied with; and
(e) provide for any other matter relating to client assets.

(5) Except as provided in the regulations, client assets held by a market intermediary on account of a client shall not be available for payment of the debts of the market intermediary or liable to be paid or taken in execution under the order or process of the Court against the market intermediary.

(6) A payment made in contravention of subsection (5) is void from the outset, and a person to whom the money is paid does not obtain any title to it.

62.- (1) Within one month after becoming licensed under this Act a market intermediary other than a representative shall appoint an external auditor to perform the functions required of an auditor of a market intermediary under or pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

(2) A person shall not be qualified for appointment as the auditor of a market intermediary unless he is a registered by a recognized professional body to practice as accountant and auditors and holds a valid practising certificate.

(3) An auditor shall not be eligible for appointment under subsection (1) if he is-
(a) a director, officer, employee, shareholder or partner of the market intermediary; or
(b) a partner or employee of such person.

(4) A market intermediary shall, within seven days of the appointment of an auditor, notify the Authority in writing of the name and address of the auditor.

(5) A market intermediary shall, within seven days, notify the Authority in writing of the removal or resignation of an auditor.

63. A market intermediary shall-
(a) for the financial year beginning on the day on which he commences to carry on commodity exchange business; and
(b) for each subsequent year,
(c) prepare a profit and loss account, a balance sheet and a cash flow statement made up to the last day of the financial year which shall show a true and fair view, contain the information prescribed, and shall lodge those documents with the Authority not later than three months after the end of the financial year, together with an auditor's report which shall express opinions on such matters as may also be prescribed.

64. Where in the course of the performance of his duties as auditor for a market intermediary, an auditor-

(a) becomes aware of any matter which in his opinion adversely affects the financial position of the market intermediary to a material extent; or

(b) discovers evidence of a contravention of provisions on segregation of client assets or provisions relating to accounts and records to be kept by market intermediaries, he shall as soon as is practicable, and in any event within seven days, report it in writing to the Authority and to the market intermediary.

65. Where the Authority is satisfied that it is in the public interest to do so, it may appoint in writing an auditor at the expense of the market intermediary to examine, audit, and report, either generally or in relation to any matter, on the books, accounts and records of the market intermediary, and on money, securities or other property held on account of any other person by the market intermediary or by a nominee appointed by the market intermediary, if-

(a) the market intermediary has failed to lodge an auditor's report under section 63;

(b) the Authority has received a report under section 64;

or

(c) the Authority has reason to believe that the market intermediary has failed to comply with section 52 or section 53.
PART XII
APPLICATION OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE CAPITAL MARKETS ACT

66. The provisions of the Capital Markets Act set out below shall apply mutatis mutandis to the commodity exchanges intermediaries, depositories and clearing houses-

(a) Part VII in relation to Accounts and Audit of brokers and dealers, which shall apply to the commodities exchange brokers and dealers;

(b) Part IX on Market Abuse which shall apply in relation to insider dealing, false trading, market rigging, market manipulation, fraudulent inducement of person to deal in commodities; dissemination of false information, employment of manipulative and deceptive devices.

69. No person shall gain control of the supply of a particular commodity which is traded on the commodity exchange with the aim of setting the price of the said commodity.

70.- (1) A person who is convicted of an offence under this Part shall, in addition to criminal liability for the offence, be liable, at the suit of any person who has sustained pecuniary loss as a result of having purchased or sold a commodity contract at a price affected by the act or transaction which comprises or is the subject of the offence, to an action for damages in respect of the loss incurred.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) limits or diminishes any civil liability that any person may incur under any other Act.

PART XIV
INFORMATION, INSPECTION AND INVESTIGATION

71.- (1) The Authority may, by notice in writing, require a licensed person to furnish it with such information as it may require for the exercise of its functions within such reasonable time and verified in such manner as it may specify.

(2) The duty to supply information under this section applies notwithstanding any other enactment or rule of law in Tanzania.

72.- (1) For the purpose of ascertaining whether a person who is, or has at any time has been a licensed person is complying or has complied with any provision of or requirement under this Act or regulation, or the terms and conditions of his licence, the Authority may from time to time inspect any record or document relating to the business to which the licence applies.

(2) The Authority may authorise in writing any person (the “authorized person”) to exercise the powers of the Authority under this section.

(3) In the exercise of powers under this section, an authorized person may-

(a) enter the premises of the licensed person;

(b) require the licensed person, or any other person whom he believes is in possession of or has under his control, any record or document referred to in subsection (1), to produce it to him;

(c) make inquiries of a licensed person, or any other person whom he has reasonable cause to believe has information relating to any record or document, referred to in subsection (1), concerning any such record or document, or concerning any transaction or activity which was undertaken in the course of, or which may affect, the business conducted by the licensed person; and

(d) inspect and make copies, or take extracts from, and where necessary take possession of, such documents.

(4) For the purpose of an inspection under this section, the licensed person or other person mentioned in subsection (3) shall afford an authorized person access to the records or documents as may be required for the inspection, and shall produce to the authorized person such records or documents as he may require.

73.- (1) Where the Authority has reasonable cause to believe, either on its own motion or as a result of a complaint received, that-

(a) an offence has been committed under this Act or any regulation;

(b) a licensed person may have engaged in defalcation, fraud, misfeasance or other misconduct in connection with his commodity business; or

(c) the manner in which a licensed person has engaged or is engaging in his commodity business is not in the interest of the consumer or the public interest, the Authority may in writing direct one or more of its employees or one or more other persons to investigate any of the matters referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) and to report the results of the investigation to the Authority.

(2) Any person who is reasonably believed or suspected by the investigator to have in his possession or under his control any record or document which contains, or which is likely to contain, information relevant to an investigation under this section, or who is so believed or suspected of otherwise having such information in his possession or under his control, shall-

(a) produce to the investigator, within the time and at the place as the investigator requires in writing, any record or document specified by the investigator which is, or may be, relevant to the investigation, and which is in his possession or under his control;
(b) if required by the investigator, give the investigator an explanation or further particulars in respect of any record or document produced under paragraph (a);

(c) attend before the investigator at the time and place the investigator requires in writing, and answer truthfully and to the best of his ability under oath or affirmation (which oath or affirmation the investigator is hereby empowered to administer) any question relating to the matters under investigation as the investigator may put to him; and

(d) give the investigator all assistance in connection with the investigation which he is reasonably able to give, including responding to any written question raised by the investigator.

(3) The provision of section 22 and 23 of the Capital Markets and Securities Act with regard to investigation of certain matters and measures to be taken pending investigation respectively shall apply in addition to the powers of the Authority under this section.

(4) A person who destroys, falsifies, conceals or disposes of, or causes or permits the destruction, falsification, concealment or disposal of, any document, which he knows or ought to know, is relevant to an inspection under section 72 or an investigation under this commits an offence and upon conviction is liable to a fine of not less than fifty million shillings or to imprisonment for a term of not less than five years or to both the fine and imprisonment.

PART XV
DISCIPLINE OF MARKET INTERMEDIARIES

74.- Subject to section 78, where-

(a) a licensee is, or was at any time, guilty of misconduct; or

(b) the Authority is of the opinion that a licensee is not a fit and proper person to remain a licensee, the Authority may exercise such of the following powers as it considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case-
(i) revoke its license; or
(ii) suspend its license for such period or until the occurrence of such event as the Authority may specify;
(iii) publicly or privately reprimand the market intermediary.

75.-(1) Subject to section 78, where a licensee is, or was at any time, guilty of misconduct, the Authority may make one or more of the orders, separately or in addition to any power exercisable under subsection (1)(b)(i), (ii) or (iii), namely an order that the licensee-

(a) pay the Authority a pecuniary penalty not less than five million shillings;
(b) pay to the Investor Compensation Fund established under the Capital Markets and Securities Act, amount of any profit gained or loss avoided as a result of the misconduct in question.
(c) with regard to an employee or agent of a market intermediary-
   (i) require the licensee to take action against the employee or agent;
   (ii) disqualify the employee or agent from employment in any capacity by any licensee;
   (iii) recover from the employee or agent an amount double the amount accruing to him from his misconduct;
(d) pay to the Authority a sum appropriate to reimburse the Authority for the costs and expenses that it has reasonably incurred in relation or incidental to the investigation of its conduct.

(2) A licensee ordered to pay a pecuniary penalty under subsection (1)(b) shall pay the penalty within 30 days, or such further period as the Authority may specify by notice after the order has taken effect.
(3) In this section “misconduct” means-
(a) a contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or regulations made under this Act;
(b) a contravention of any of the terms or conditions of a license granted under this Act;
(c) failure to comply with a direction of the Authority; or
(d) an act or omission by a licensee in relation to his regulated activity which, in the opinion of the Authority, is or is likely to be prejudicial to the public interest;
(e) and “guilty of misconduct” shall be construed accordingly.

76.- (1) The Authority may revoke a license or suspend a license for such period or until the occurrence of such event as the Authority may specify-
(a) in the case of an individual-
   (i) it is shown by certified medical evidence that he has become mentally or physically incapable of performing the activities to which the license relates;
   (ii) he has been adjudged a bankrupt, in Tanzania or elsewhere;
   (iii) he is convicted, whether in Tanzania or elsewhere, of fraud or other offences involving dishonesty;
   (iv) he is in breach of this Act or any regulation made by the Authority under this Act;
   (v) he has contravened or failed to comply with any condition applicable in respect of his license;
   (vi) he has failed to comply with a direction of the Authority;
   (vii) he has failed to provide the Authority with information required, or provides false or misleading information;
   (viii) he ceased to carry on the business for which he is licensed;

(ix) he is the holder of a representative’s license and the license of the principal to whom he is accredited is revoked or suspended; or

(x) he is no longer, by reason of any other circumstances, a fit and proper person to hold a license;

(b) where a licensee is a company-

(i) the company goes into liquidation or is ordered to be wound up;

(ii) a receiver or manager of all or a substantial part of the property of the company is appointed;

(iii) the company ceases to carry on the business for which it is licensed;

(iv) the Authority has reason to believe that the company, or any of its directors or employees, has not performed his duties honestly and fairly;

(v) the company contravenes or fails to comply with any condition applicable in respect of the license;

(vi) the company does not continue to employ at least one person who holds a representative’s license granted under this Act;

(vii) the company is in breach of this Act, or any regulation made by the Authority under this Act;

(viii) fails to comply with a direction of the Authority;

(ix) fails to provide the Authority with information required, or provides false or misleading information; or

(x) by reason of any other circumstances, the company is no longer a fit and proper person to hold a license.

(2) Where the Authority suspends a license under this section, the suspension shall be for a period not exceeding 3 months; provided that the Authority may, if it considers it necessary, extend the suspension for a further period not exceeding 3 months at the expiry of which the Authority shall either lift the suspension, or proceed to revoke the license, as it deems appropriate.

(3) The licence shall be deemed to be suspended if the licensee fails to pay the prescribed annual fee and, subject to subsection (4), the suspension shall remain in force until such time as the Authority considers it appropriate that the license should no longer be suspended and informs the licensee to that effect by notice in writing.

(4) Where a license is suspended under subsection (3) and the prescribed fee has not been paid within 30 days after the day on which the suspension becomes effective under subsection (3), or such further period as the Authority may specify by notice in writing to the licensee, the license shall be deemed to be revoked.

(5) The Authority may revoke or suspend a license at the request of the licensee.

(6) For the purposes of subsections (1)(a)(viii) and (1)(b)(iii) a licensee shall be deemed to have ceased to carry on the business for which he is licensed if -

(a) he has ceased to carry on the business for which he is licensed for more than 30 days unless he has obtained the prior approval of the Authority to do so; or

(b) he has ceased to carry on such business under a direction issued by the Authority under section 46.

(7) Where the Authority suspends or revokes the licence of a market intermediary under this section, it shall cause notice of that fact to be published in the official Gazette.

77.- (1) The revocation or suspension of a license under this Act shall not operate so as to-

(a) avoid or affect an agreement, transaction or arrangement entered into by the market intermediary on the commodity market of a commodity exchange where the agreement, transaction or arrangement was entered into before the revocation or suspension;
(b) affect a right, obligation or liability arising under the agreement, transaction or arrangement.

(2) Where a license is revoked or suspended under this Act, the Authority may by notice in writing-
(a) require the licensee to transfer to, or to the order of, his client such records relating to client property or to the affairs of the client held at any time for the client, in such manner, as the Authority may specify in the notice; or
(b) permit the licensee to-
   (i) in the case of a revocation, carry on business operations for the purpose of closing down the business connected with the revocation;
   (ii) in the case of a suspension, carry on only essential business operations for the protection of interests of clients during the period of suspension;
   (iii) subject to such conditions as the Authority may specify in the notice.

78.- (1) The Authority shall not exercise any power under section 74 or 75 without first giving the licensee in respect of whom the power is to be exercised a reasonable opportunity of being heard.
(2) The Authority may prescribe the manner in which the market intermediary shall be given an opportunity to be heard.
(3) Where the Authority decides to exercise any power under section 74 or 75, the Authority shall inform the licensee in respect of whom the power is exercised of its decision to do so by notice in writing, and the notice shall include-
   (a) a statement of the reasons for which the decision is made;
   (b) the time at which the decision is to take effect;
   (c) in so far as applicable, the duration and terms of any revocation or suspension to be imposed under the decision;
(d) in so far as applicable, the terms in which the licensee is to be reprimanded under the decision;
(e) in so far as applicable, the amount of any pecuniary penalty to be imposed under the decision and the period (being specified as a period after the decision has taken effect) within which it is required to be paid.

(4) A pecuniary penalty imposed by the Authority in the exercise of its powers under this Part may be recovered by the Authority as a civil debt and, for the purposes of proof of such debt, a certificate under the hand of the Chief Executive Officer of the Authority shall be receivable in evidence as sufficient proof of such debt.

(5) The provisions of section 49 regarding powers of the Authority to institute statutory management shall apply in the case of revocation of licences under this section.

79. The Authority shall establish a standing disciplinary committee to hear and determine disciplinary proceedings brought against a licensee pursuant to this Act.

PART XVI
OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

80.- (1) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of this Act or any regulation commits an offence and is liable on conviction-
(a) in the case of an individual, to a fine of not less than five million shillings or to imprisonment for a term of one year or to both;
(b) in the case of a company, to a fine of not less than ten million shillings.

(j) the display of licences and the issue of duplicates;
(k) the making of annual or other regular returns to the Authority by licensees;
(l) the fees to be paid in respect of any matter or thing required for the purposes of this Act;
(m) all matters or things which by this Act are required or permitted to be prescribed or which are necessary or expedient to be prescribed to give effect to this Act.

(3) Any regulations made under this Act by the Authority may-

(a) provide that a contravention of any specified provision shall be an offence and may impose financial penalties not exceeding shillings five million;
(b) be of general or special application and may make different provisions for different cases or classes of case; and
(c) provide for the exercise of discretion in particular cases.

(4) For the avoidance of doubt, the powers of the Authority to make regulations under this section are in addition to and not in derogation of any other power of the Authority to make regulations under any provision of this Act or any other Act.

(5) All regulations made by the Authority under this Act shall be published in the Gazette and shall take effect upon such publication or on any other date as may be specified in the Gazette.
87.- (1) Where the Authority considers that, for the protection of investors, there is a need for immediate action with regard to the conduct by a market intermediary in respect of its commodity business, the Authority may entirely on its own initiative issue directions of a general or special nature by notice in writing to the market intermediary.

(2) A direction issued under subsection (1) may relate to any matter concerning the conduct of commodity business by a market intermediary.

(3) Failure to comply with a direction issued under subsection (1) shall constitute a disciplinary offence and may lead to disciplinary action.

88. The Authority may establish a standing complaints committee whose jurisdiction shall include the power to award compensation in a sum not exceeding five million shillings and whose composition and procedures shall be as prescribed by the Authority.

89.- (1) Where the Authority receives, from a regulatory authority outside Tanzania, a request for assistance for the purposes of the exercise of its functions or for the purposes of investigating whether a person specified by the regulatory authority has contravened or is contravening legal or regulatory requirements which-

(a) the regulatory authority enforces or administers; and

(b) relate to such securities transactions as are regulated by the regulatory authority, the Authority may, where it is of the opinion that the conditions specified in subsection (3) are satisfied, provide such assistance and the assistance to investigate the matter by exercising any of its powers under sections 71, 72 and 73, or by providing such other assistance as the Authority thinks fit.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the provisions of Part VIII shall, with such adaptations as may be necessary, apply and have effect as if the contravention of the legal or regulatory requirement were an offence under this Act.

(3) The conditions referred to in subsection (1) are that-

(a) it is desirable or expedient that the assistance requested is provided in order to meet the Authority’s objectives under this Act; or
(b) the assistance will enable or assist the recipient of the assistance to perform its functions; and
(c) the Authority is satisfied that the foreign regulatory authority will provide any non-public information with the confidentiality protection appropriate in the circumstances.

(4) In deciding whether the condition specified in subsection (3) is satisfied in a particular case, the Authority shall take into account whether the regulatory authority—
(a) will pay to the Authority any of the costs and expenses incurred in providing the assistance;
(b) will be able and willing to provide reciprocal assistance within its jurisdiction in response to a comparable request for assistance from Tanzania; and
(c) is a signatory to the multilateral Memorandum of Understanding of the International Organization of Securities Commissions.

90. The Authority may, by notice in the official Gazette, specify forms that are required to be used for any purpose under this Act.

91.-(1) The Authority may issue such codes, guidelines or regulatory or policy statements as it considers appropriate for providing guidance—
(a) in relation to any of its regulatory objectives under this Act;
(b) in relation to any matter relating to any of the functions of the Authority under this Act;
(c) in relation to the operation of any provision of this Act.
(2) The Authority may publish codes and guidelines in such manner as it deems fit.

(cc) protect the integrity of the securities market and commodity exchanges trading against all forms of abuses by taking legal or administrative measures to prevent fraudulent and unfair trade practices including insider dealing;

(dd) promote and register self-regulatory organizations.”

OBJECTS AND REASONS

The objective of this Bill is to put in place a legal framework for the Licensing, operation and supervision of the commodity exchanges by the Capital Markets and Securities Authority (CMSA).

A commodity exchange is a platform for trading of commodities and commodities derivatives. It is usually an entity incorporated as a company which provides a formal open and organized market place where various buyers and sellers trade ownership titles (contracts) to standardized quantities of specific commodities. The trades are carried out in an orderly organized manner based on clearly specified and transparent rules by members of the exchange known as brokers or dealers on behalf of the various buyers and sellers.

In view of the above objective, the Bill is divided in divided into Twelve Parts.

Part I deals with preliminary matters which include citation of the Act, Interpretation of the terms used in the Act and Application of the Bill.

Part II provides for the responsibilities of the CMSA and objectives of regulating commodity exchanges.
Part III deals with licensing requirements of Commodity Exchanges. The Part prohibits operating a commodity exchange without a licence from the CMSA. It further sets out licensing requirements of Commodities Exchange.

Part IV deals with the responsibility of a licensed commodity exchanges, including duty to act fairly, prudently and observing confidentiality.

Part V makes provisions that are intended to assist the CMSA to ensure that it discharges it supervisory responsibilities effectively. In that regard, the CMSA is empowered to issue directions of general and specific nature to Commodity Exchanges. Commodity Exchanges are further required under this Part to comply with the CMSA’s directions. The CMSA is also empowered under this Part to take measures for non compliance with its directions which includes removal of officers or censure.

Part VI provides for powers of the CMSA to review disciplinary measures taken by commodity exchanges, appeals on disciplinary measures, actions by commodity exchanges and emergency powers of the CMSA.

Part VII deals with aspects of revocation of licences issued to commodity exchanges. Part VIII deals with approval by the Authority of commodity exchanges contracts, fixing commodity trading positions and trading limits.

Part IX deals with procedures for licensing of commodity exchanges market intermediaries.

Part X makes provisions on standards of conduct for commodity market intermediaries which requires certain disclosures such as agreements and contract to be made to be kept by the said intermediaries.

Part XI makes provision for accounts and audit for both the commodity exchanges and their market intermediaries.

Part XIII sets out market abuse incidence in relation to commodity exchanges trading.
Part XIV confers powers to CMSA to call for information and Part XV deals with disciplinary measures for market intermediaries.

Part XVI deals with offences and Penalties.

Part XVII deals with miscellaneous provisions which include powers to make regulations, assistance to regulators outside Tanzania, immunity of officers and staff acting in good faith when discharging their responsibilities and appeals from decisions of the Authority.

Part XVIII deals with consequential amendments to the Capital Markets and Securities Act and the Companies Act.
