3. This Act shall apply to—
   (a) all national societies;
   (b) all secondary societies;
   (c) such other registered societies as the Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, declare to be societies to which all or any of the provisions of this Act shall apply;

Application
(d) all employees of the registered societies specified in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this section other than employees the terms of whose engagement provide for their payment at the end of each day and who are not engaged for a longer period than twenty-four hours at a time.

PART II

THE UNIFIED CO-OPERATIVE SERVICE COMMISSION, ITS FUNCTIONS AND POWERS

4.—(1) There is hereby established a Unified Co-operative Service Commission which shall have responsibility, in accordance with the functions and powers conferred upon it by this Act, for maintaining, controlling and regulating the terms and conditions of service of officers of the Unified Co-operative Service established by section 13.

(2) The provisions of the First Schedule to this Act shall have effect as to the constitution and proceedings of the Commission and otherwise in relation to the Commission.

5. A person shall not be qualified for appointment as a member of the Commission if he is—

(a) an employee of a registered society to whom this Act applies; or

(b) a person who is a member of any body of persons which, in the opinion of the Minister, is a staff association or a trade union which has as its object, or one of its objects, the control or influencing of salaries, wages or conditions of service of any category of persons employed by registered societies.

6.—(1) The Civil Service Commission shall appoint a Secretary to the Commission and such other officers as may be necessary to constitute the staff of the Commission.

(2) The Secretary to the Commission shall not be a member of the Commission nor have any vote in its deliberations.

7.—(1) The members of the Commission shall, on first appointment, take an oath or make an affirmation in the form set out in the Second Schedule to this Act.

(2) The Secretary to the Commission and such other officers of the Commission as the Chairman of the Commission may require so to do, shall, on first appointment, take an oath or make an affirmation in the form set out in the Second Schedule to this Act.

(3) Every oath taken or affirmation made by a member of the Commission shall be administered by a Judge of the High Court, and every oath taken or affirmation made by the Secretary to the Commission or any other officer of the Commission shall be administered by the Chairman of the Commission.

8.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the functions of the Commission shall be—

(a) to prescribe and introduce the terms and conditions of service of persons holding or acting in any office in the Service;
(b) to appoint persons to hold or act in any office in the Service, with power to confirm appointments, to appoint on promotion and to transfer officers of the Service from one employing society to another;

c) to exercise disciplinary control over persons holding or acting in any office in the Service and to remove such persons from office;

d) to make such provision as may be necessary for the maintenance and control of the Service generally, including—

(i) the establishment of joint negotiating machinery with regard to the remuneration and conditions of service of officers of the Service;

(ii) the establishment, management and control of any provident fund, superannuation fund or pension scheme;

(iii) the giving of advice to employing societies regarding the training of officers of the Service;

(iv) the interviewing and selection of candidates for awards under training schemes and the co-ordination of arrangements for courses of training;

(v) the co-ordination of arrangements for the setting of promotional examinations for officers of the Service and of entrance examinations for prospective officers of the Service;

e) to give such advice and make such recommendations to the Minister as it may think fit regarding the Service in relation to any matter—

(i) which the Minister may refer to the Commission for its advice; or

(ii) which affects the interests of co-operative societies.

(2) The decisions of the Commission in the exercise of the functions and powers conferred upon it by or under this Act shall be final and binding on all employing societies and on all officers of the Service.

(3) The Commission may, with the consent of the Minister, make regulations relating to any of the functions and powers conferred upon it by subsection (1) and any such regulations may—

(a) be expressed to apply to all officers of the Service or to any category or group of such officers;

(b) prescribe such terms and conditions of service as provide for salary scales, the payment of allowances and gratuities, the grant of advances, promotion, the interdiction of officers, the termination of appointments, dismissals, leave and any other matters relating to the organization, discipline and welfare of officers of the Service;

(c) prescribe anything that may be, or is required to be, prescribed under this Act.
9.—(1) The Commission may arrange for such examinations and conduct such interviews and investigations, and appoint such selection, promotion or other boards as it may consider necessary for the proper discharge of its functions under this Act.

(2) The Commission may co-opt to any board appointed under subsection (1) persons who are not members of the Commission:

Provided that the number of persons so co-opted shall not exceed the number of members of the Commission on such board.

10.—(1) The Commission may, by directions in writing and subject to such conditions as it thinks fit, delegate any of its powers to, and impose duties on, any board appointed under section 9, on any employing society and on any officer of the Service.

(2) The Commission may, by a direction under subsection (1), empower the board, employing society or officer of the Service, as the case may be, to authorize any other person who is an officer of the Service to exercise any powers or perform any duties delegated under that subsection.

11.—(1) The question whether—

(a) the Commission has validly performed any function conferred on it by this Act; or

(b) any member of the Commission or any other person or employing society has validly performed any function of the Commission that, under this Act, has been delegated to that member or other person or society or, in pursuance of such a delegation, has been authorized to be performed by that member or other person or society; or

(c) any member of the Commission or any other person or employing society has validly performed any other function in relation to the work of the Commission or in relation to any such function as is referred to in paragraph (b) of this subsection, shall not be inquired into in any court.

(2) Every member of the Commission shall have such and the like protection and privilege in case of any action or suit brought against him for any act done or omitted to be done in the bona fide execution of his duties as is by law given to the acts done or words spoken by a Judge of the High Court in the exercise of his judicial office.

12.—(1) The remuneration and allowances of members of the Commission and the salaries and expenses incurred by the Commission in the discharge of its functions shall be defrayed out of moneys provided by Parliament and the Minister may from time to time determine the amount of the contribution to be paid to the Government by each employing society in respect of the cost of the Commission and the time on or before which, and the manner in which, such contributions shall be made:

Provided that every employing authority shall itself reimburse the Commission with the costs of advertising vacant posts on its behalf and with the costs of meeting expenses of candidates attending interviews in respect of such vacant posts.
(2) There shall be paid to the Chairman and members of the Commission such remuneration and such allowances as may be determined by the Minister.

PART III

THE UNIFIED CO-OPERATIVE SERVICE

13.—(1) There shall be established, with effect from such date as the Minister may, by notice published in the Gazette, appoint (hereinafter referred to as "the effective date"), a Unified Co-operative Service.

(2) The Service shall be composed of—

(a) the employees specified in section 3;

(b) such persons as may, on or at any time after the effective date, be appointed by the Commission to any office in the Service.

14.—(1) The first terms or conditions of service to be introduced by the Commission shall be effective from the effective date or, in the case of the first salary scales to be introduced, such later date or dates as the Commission may prescribe.

(2) Every officer of the Service appointed prior to the effective date shall be given the option to remain, if he so wishes, on the terms and conditions of service which applied to him immediately prior to the effective date.

(3) Any officer of the Service who opts to remain on the terms and conditions of service which applied to him immediately prior to the effective date shall, within sixty days after the effective date, in writing notify his employing society of such option and an officer who fails to give such notice within that period shall be deemed to have accepted the terms and conditions of service prescribed by the Commission.

(4) Any Officer of the Service who opts to remain on the terms and conditions of service which applied to him immediately prior to the effective date shall be required to accept the terms and conditions of service prescribed by the Commission in the event of his accepting an offer of promotion at any time after the effective date.

(5) All appointments to the Service made on or after the effective date shall be on the terms and conditions of service prescribed by the Commission and all promotions made prior to the effective date, which are to take effect on or after that date, shall be subject to the approval of the Commission and shall be regarded as appointments made on or after the effective date.

(6) All options exercised under this section whereby the terms and conditions of service prescribed by the Commission are accepted shall be irrevocable.

15.—(1) The Commission may, in its absolute discretion, require the holder of any office in the Service to satisfy the Commission, by examination or otherwise, of his proficiency and fitness to hold that office:

Provided that this subsection shall apply only to such category or categories of offices in the Service as the Commission shall prescribe.
(2) Where the holder of an office to which subsection (1) is applied fails to satisfy the Commission of his proficiency and fitness to hold such office, the Commission shall endeavour to transfer him, with his consent, to an office in the Service which, in the opinion of the Commission, is commensurate with his abilities and, in default of such transfer, the Commission may, in its absolute discretion, require that his employment be terminated by his employing society in accordance with the terms and conditions of service then applicable to him.

(3) Where the holder of an office in the Service to which subsection (1) is applied opts to accept the terms and conditions of service prescribed by the Commission he shall not be permitted to proceed to such terms and conditions of service unless and until he has satisfied the Commission in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1).

16. Subject to the provisions of this Act, an employing society may, with the approval of the Minister, make provision in its estimates for an establishment of such officers of the Service as it shall think necessary for the efficient discharge of its functions:

Provided that the grading of posts and the salary scales attaching to the posts for which provision is so made shall be as prescribed by the Commission.

17.—(1) Where a post in the approved establishment of an employing society is vacant, or is about to become vacant, the employing society shall notify the Commission in such manner as the Commission shall prescribe and the Commission shall use its best endeavours to fill the posts:

Provided that the Minister may, at the request of an employing society and in his absolute discretion, give authority to the Commission for the post to remain vacant.

(2) Where the Commission is not able to fill a post which has been notified to it as vacant, or about to become vacant, by appointing thereto a person holding the qualifications considered by the Commission to be requisite for the holder of that post, the Commission may in its discretion appoint a person who is not so qualified to act temporarily in that post for a period of not more than two years.

18.—(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the Commission may, with the approval of the Minister and with the consent of the person concerned, appoint to any office in the Service a person in the service of the Government seconded to an employing society for that purpose, for such period and on such terms and conditions as the Minister may approve.

(2) A person appointed under subsection (1) to an office in the Service shall not be regarded as an officer of the Service except in so far as any duties are prescribed and imposed on the holder of the office to which such person is appointed.

19.—(1) A member of the Commission shall not, within a period of three years commencing with the day on which he last held or acted in the office of member of the Commission, be eligible for appointment to or to act in any office in the Service.
(2) A person shall so long as he is, and for a period of six months after he ceases to be, a member of the committee of an employing society be disqualified from being appointed as an officer of the Service in the employment of that society.

20. For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that all officers of the Service, whether appointed prior to the effective date or whether appointed by the Commission on behalf of an employing society, are servants of, employed by and owe their loyalty to the employing society to which they are appointed.

PART IV
MISCELLANEOUS

21. The Commission may require any officer of the Service to attend and give information before it concerning any matter which, it is required to consider in the exercise of its functions and may require the production of any official documents relating to any such matter by the person attending before it.

22. No person shall in any legal proceedings be permitted or compelled to produce or disclose any communication, written or oral, which has taken place between the Commission or any member or officer thereof, and any employing society or any member of the committee or officer thereof, or between any members or officers of the Commission in the exercise of, or in connection with the exercise of, any of the functions of the Commission, unless the Chairman shall consent in writing to such production or disclosure.

23. Without prejudice to any other written law, every person who, otherwise than in the course of his duty, directly or indirectly by himself or by any other person in any manner whatsoever influences or attempts to influence any decision of the Commission shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding four thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both such fine and imprisonment:

Provided that nothing in this section shall prohibit any person from giving a certificate or testimonial to any applicant or candidate for any office in the Service or course or training or from supplying any information or assistance upon formal request made by the Commission.
