

THE UNITED REPUBLIC OF TANZANIA

No. 38 OF 1969

I ASSENT,

President

6TH NOVEMBER, 1969

An Act to provide for the Protection of certain Areas and Places

[7TH NOVEMBER, 1969]

ENACTED by the Parliament of the United Republic of Tanzania.

1. This Act may be cited as the Protected Places and Areas Act, 1969. Short title

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

Interpretation

“authorized officer” means—

- (a) any police officer of or above the rank of Assistant Inspector;
- (b) in relation to any Region, the Regional Commissioner of the region; and in relation to any district, the Area Commissioner in charge of the district;
- (c) any person performing the duties of a guard or watchman in a protected place or a protected area authorized in that behalf under the provisions of section 3;
- (d) any other person or class of persons declared by the Minister by order in the Gazette to be an authorized officer or officers for the purposes of this Act either generally or in respect of any specified place or area or class of places or areas;

“Minister” means the Minister for the time being responsible for legal affairs;

“premises” includes any land in Tanganyika and any building or structure upon such land;

“protected area” means any area declared to be a protected area under section 5;

“protected place” means any premises declared to be a protected place under section 4.

Authorization of guards and watchmen

3. A Regional Commissioner, an Area Commissioner or a police officer of or above the rank of Assistant Superintendent may authorize in writing any person performing the duties of a guard or a watchman in a protected place or protected area to exercise the powers of an authorized officer in such place or area.

Protected
places

4.—(1) If in regard to any premises the Minister is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient that special precautions should be taken to prevent the entry of unauthorized persons, he may, by order in the Gazette, declare such premises to be a protected place for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Where any premises are declared to be a protected place for the purposes of this Act no person other than a person who is, or who belongs to a class of persons which is, specifically exempted in the order made under subsection (1) or in any subsequent order, shall enter such premises or be in such premises unless he is the holder of a valid permit issued by such authority or person as may be specified in such order or unless he has received permission of the authorized officer on duty at such premises to enter upon or remain in them.

(3) Where under this section any person has been issued with a permit or is granted permission to enter upon, or be in, a protected place, that person shall, while in such place, comply with the conditions, if any, specified in the permit or with such directions for regulating his conduct as may be given by the authority or person granting the permission as the case may be, and an authorized officer or any person authorized in that behalf by the occupier of the premises may search any person entering or seeking to enter or who is found to be in a protected place, and may detain any such person for the purposes of searching him.

(4) Any person who, not being a person who is exempt from the provisions of an order made under subsection (1)—

- (a) enters or is found in any protected place without being in possession of a valid permit authorizing him to do so or without the permission of the authorized officer; or
- (b) fails to comply with the condition of the permit or with the direction given by the authorized officer, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Protected
areas

5.—(1) If in regard to any area the Minister is satisfied that it is necessary or expedient that special measures be taken to control the movement and conduct of persons, he may by order published in the Gazette declare such area to be a protected area and in such order provide—

- (a) that no person shall enter or be in such area unless he is the holder of a valid permit issued by such authority or person as may be specified in such order; or
- (b) that any person who enters or is in any protected area shall comply with such directions regulating his movements and conduct as may be given by an authorized officer.

(2) The Minister may, in an order made under subsection (1) or by any subsequent order, exempt any person or class of persons from the provisions of such order.

(3) An authorized officer may search any person entering or seeking to enter or who is found in a protected area and may detain any such person for the purposes of searching him.

(4) Where any area is declared to be a protected area any person who, not being a person exempted under the provisions of subsection (2)—

- (a) if the area is an area in relation to which an order has been made in terms of paragraph (a) of subsection (1), enters such area or is found therein without being in possession of a valid permit issued under subsection (1); or
- (b) fails to comply with any of the conditions of any permit issued to him; or
- (c) if the area is an area in relation to which an order has been made in terms of paragraph (b) of subsection (1), while in the area, fails to comply with any direction given by an authorized officer, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

6.—(1) The Minister may by notice in writing to the occupier of any protected place or protected area direct such occupier at his own expense to take such measures for the better protection of the place or area as the Minister may consider reasonably necessary.

Measures for protection of a protected place or area

(2) If an occupier fails or refuses, within such time as may be specified in the notice given to him under subsection (1) or in any subsequent notice, to comply with the directions given under the provisions of that subsection, the Minister may cause the necessary measures to be taken, and the expenses incurred in so doing shall be a debt due from the occupier to the United Republic and may be recovered accordingly.

7.—(1) The Minister may by notice in writing require an occupier of any protected place or protected area to take such steps as the Minister may deem necessary in the public interest for the safeguarding of any information relating to such place or area, or for the security of any classified information or document which may be furnished to such occupier, in his capacity as such, by any public officer.

Safeguarding of information

(2) Any person who fails to comply with any of the requirements of a notice issued to him under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

- Regulations 8. The Minister may make regulations for the better carrying out of the provisions and purposes of this Act and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing may make regulations—
- (a) requiring the erection by persons specified in such regulations or in any order made thereunder of hoarding notices at or near the site of protected places and protected areas;
 - (b) prescribing the forms of permits for entry in a protected place or a protected area.
- Power of arrest 9. A police officer may arrest without warrant any person reasonably suspected of having committed or of committing an offence contrary to any of the provisions of this Act or of any regulations made thereunder.
- Evidence 10. In any proceedings for an offence under this Act the burden of proving—
- (a) that he is a person who is exempt from an order made under subsection (2) of section 4 or subsection (2) of section 5; or
 - (b) that he entered or was in the protected place or the protected area, as the case may be, under the authority of a valid permit issued to him; or
 - (c) that he entered or was in any protected place or protected area with the permission of the authorized officer on duty at such place,
- shall be on the alleged offender and in the absence of such proof the contrary shall be presumed.

Passed in the National Assembly on the twenty-first day of October, 1969.

 Clerk of the National Assembly