3. Where any specified officer is liable for a debt, the proper authority may, without prejudice to any other means that may be available for the recovery of such debt, authorize the recovery of the debt by deductions from the specified officer's salary by monthly instalments not exceeding one-fourth of his monthly salary and the remittance of the sums deducted to the authority or corporation entitled to the payment of the debt:

Provided that where a specified officer is liable for payment of two or more debts the total amount authorized to be deducted from his salary in any month shall not exceed one-third of the salary payable in that month.

4. This Act shall not apply to any debt—

- (a) which the specified officer from whom the same is due has agreed in writing to pay by instalments to be deducted from his salary; or
- (b) which may under the provisions of any other written law be recovered by deductions from the salary of the specified officer from whom the same is due.

Act not to apply to certain debts

5. Where any deduction has been made from the salary of a specified officer in respect of any debt, such deduction shall operate as a complete discharge of the specified officer from his liability in respect of that debt to the extent of the deduction made.

Deductions to operate as a discharge

6.—(1) No deduction shall be made from the salary of any specified officer under the provisions of this Act unless a notice in writing has first been given to the specified officer by or on behalf of the proper authority.

Notice of deduction

(2) Every notice under subsection (1) shall state the amount of the debt due, the circumstances giving rise to the debt and the amount of the proposed deductions from the salary.

(3) A notice under subsection (1) shall, save for the purposes of an appeal under section 7 or for any further appeal, be conclusive proof of the liability of the specified officer to whom it is addressed in respect of the debt specified therein.

(4) A copy of every notice under subsection (1) shall be sent to the officer responsible for paying the salary of the specified officer and it shall be the duty of such officer to make deductions from the salary of the specified officer in accordance with the terms of the notice unless such notice or any term thereof is set aside or varied on any appeal made under section 7 or on any further appeal, in which case such officer shall comply with the order of the court deciding the appeal.

7.—(1) Where a specified officer to whom a notice under section 6 has been given is aggrieved by any of the terms of the notice he may, within thirty days of the receipt of the notice, appeal to the court.

Appeals

(2) On an appeal under subsection (1) the court may confirm, set aside or vary the notice.

(3) An order of the court on an appeal under this section may be appealed from in the same manner and to the same extent in all respects as a decree of that court in a civil suit.

(4) The Chief Justice may make rules regulating the procedure for appeals under this section.

When
attachment
on salary ordered

8. Where any deduction is made under the provisions of this Act from the salary of any specified officer and an attachment of the salary is ordered by any court under any law for the time being in force regulating attachments, the salary of the specified officer shall, for the purposes of such attachment, be deemed to be the difference between his salary and the deductions made under this Act.

Amendment
of the Schedule

9. The Minister may by order published in the Gazette add to, delete from, amend or replace the Schedule to this Act.

Regulations

10. The Minister may make regulations for the better carrying out of the purposes of this Act and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, may make regulations—

- (a) providing for payment of interest at a rate not exceeding seven per centum per annum on unpaid debts in respect of which no interest has been agreed upon by the parties;
- (b) prescribing anything which under this Act may be prescribed.
