(a) he is the holder of or his name is endorsed upon, a residence permit issued under the provisions of this Act; or

(b) he is the holder of, or his name is endorsed upon, a pass issued under the provisions of this Act;

Provided that—

G) the Minister may exempt any person or class of persons from the requirement of possessing a passport;
(ii) Where any such permit or pass or endorsement thereon expires or is cancelled and no further permit or pass is issued or endorsement made, the presence in Tanzania of the former holder thereof or of the person whose name is endorsed thereon, as the case may be, shall not be unlawful by reason only of the provisions of this subsection before such date or during such period commencing with such expiry or cancellation, as may be provided for in relation to permits, passes or endorsements, or permits, passes or endorsements of the relevant category, by regulations made under section 28, unless the Minister otherwise directs.

(2) The provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of section 10 shall apply to every person other than:

(a) the envoy of a foreign sovereign power accredited to Tanzania, and members of his official and domestic staff;

(b) the chief or other representative of a Commonwealth country in Tanzania, and the members of the official staff and the domestic staff of such a chief or other representative;

(c) a consular officer or consular employee of a foreign sovereign power appointed to Tanzania and recognized as such by the Government of Tanzania;

(d) the wife and dependent children of an envoy of a foreign sovereign power accredited to Tanzania, or of the chief or other representative of a Commonwealth country in Tanzania, or of a member of the official staff accompanying such member, or of a consular officer or consular employee of a foreign sovereign power appointed to Tanzania and recognized as such by the Government of Tanzania;

(e) a person in the service of the Government of Tanzania, or a person in the service of the Community or of a Corporation Within the Community and stationed in Tanzania who has in his possession a valid passport and satisfies the immigration officer as to his identity and occupation, and the wife and dependent children of such person:

Provided that any person so engaged in the service of the Government of Tanzania, the Community or a Corporation Within the Community on local terms may be called upon to provide security either by bond or cash deposit for any expenses which may be incurred by the Government or his employer for repatriating him, his wife and dependent children to his country of origin;

(f) any other person in respect of whom the Minister has given directions that he shall be exempted from the provisions of this section.

(3) The wife or any dependent child of any person exempted under subsection (2) of this section, shall not engage in any employment, business, trade or profession in Tanzania without first obtaining a residence permit issued or deemed to have been issued to him for that purpose.

(4) Where-

(a) any person to whom paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (2) refers ceases to hold such office;
(b) any person to whom paragraph (e) of subsection (2) refers ceases to be in the service of the Government, the Community or a Corporation within the Community or, in the case of an employee of the Community or a Corporation within the Community, ceases to be stationed in Tanzania; Or

(c) the Minister gives directions that any exemption granted under paragraph (f) of subsection (2) is cancelled or withdrawn, then, on the expiration of one month from such cessation, cancellation or withdrawal, as the case may be, or such longer period as the Minister may allow, the presence in Tanzania of such person and, in the case of a person to whom paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (e) refers, of his wife and dependent children, shall, unless otherwise authorized under this Act, be unlawful.

11.- (1) There shall be three classes of residence permits to be known respectively as Class A permits, Class B permits and Class C permits.

(2) Residence permits shall be issued for any period not exceeding three years and may be renewed for any period not exceeding two years by an endorsement of renewal endorsed thereon by the Principal Immigration Officer but so that the total period of the validity of the original permit and of the renewals thereof shall not in any case exceed five years.

(3) The power to issue any class of permit shall be vested in the Principal Immigration Officer:

Provided that he may delegate such power in relation to any class of permits to such immigration officer as he may think fit.

12.- (1) A person, other than a prohibited immigrant, who intends to enter or remain in Tanzania and engage in trade, business, profession, agriculture, animal husbandry, prospecting of minerals or manufacture may, if the Principal Immigration officer thinks fit, be granted a Class A permit if:

(a) such person or some other person on his behalf furnishes security by depositing with an immigration officer such sum as, in the opinion of the immigration Officer, is sufficient to cover the cost of returning him, his wife and dependent children, if any, to his country of origin or, in the discretion of the immigration officer, to some other country into which he may be admitted, together with a further sum not exceeding twenty-five per centum of such first-named sum; or

(b) he furnishes security by entering into a bond with one or more sureties to be approved by the immigration officer for an amount calculated in accordance with paragraph (a).

(2) A person to whom a Class A has been granted shall be permitted to enter or remain in Tanzania subject to such conditions relating to-

(a) the area within which he may reside;

(b) the kind of occupation or business (if any) in which he may engage, and the restrictions, prohibitions or limitations subject to which he may engage herein; and

(c) the duration of his residence in Tanzania, as may be specified in the permit by the Principal Immigration Officer.
13.- (1) A person, other than a prohibited immigrant, who has been offered a specific employment in Tanzania and the Principal Immigration Officer is satisfied that he possesses the qualification or skill necessary for such employment and that his employment will be of benefit to Tanzania, may, if the Principal Immigration Officer, thinks fit, be granted a Class B permit subject to the condition that the employer shall, before entry into Tanzania of such person and his dependents, if any, or before such person being granted such permit, give such security for such purposes as the Principal Immigration Officer may direct.

(2) A person to whom a Class B permit is granted shall be permitted to enter or remain in Tanzania subject to any conditions in respect of any of the matters referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subsection (2) of section 12, or any other matter, which the Principal Immigration Officer may specify.

14.- (1) A person, other than a prohibited immigrant, who is not granted a Class A or Class B permit may, if the Principal Immigration Officer thinks fit, be granted a Class C permit subject to such conditions in respect of matters referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subsection (1) of section 12, or any other matter, as may be specified by the Principal Immigration Officer.

(2) A person to whom a Class C permit is granted shall be permitted to enter or remain in Tanzania subject to such conditions as may be specified by the Principal Immigration Officer as aforesaid.

15.- (1) Every residence permit issued under this Act shall be subject to the condition that if at any time the holder thereof is notified by the Principal Immigration Officer that the permit has been cancelled in accordance with subsection (2) the holder shall, within such time as the Principal Immigration Officer may specify, leave Tanzania.

(2) The Principal Immigration Officer may at any time, if he considers, it in the public interest so to do, by notice in writing given to the holder of a permit, cancel the permit or vary or add to the conditions annexed thereto:

Provided that the cancellation of a permit by the Principal Immigration Officer under this subsection shall be subject to the confirmation by the Minister whose decision shall be final.

16. Any person aggrieved by any decision of the Principal Immigration Officer refusing an application for a residence permit may appeal to the Minister against such decision and the decision of the Minister on any such appeal shall be final and shall not be subject to review by any court of law.

17.- (1) Where a residence permit has been issued to a person and that person-

(a) ceases to be engaged in the employment, occupation, trade, business or profession specified in the permit; or
(b) engages in any employment, occupation, trade, business or profession other than the employment, occupation, trade, business or profession specified in the permit, whether on full time or part-time basis, the permit shall thereupon cease to be valid and the presence of such person in Tanzania shall, unless otherwise authorized under this Act, be unlawful.

(2) Where the holder of a residence permit granted in respect of any employment fails or ceases to be employed in such employment, the employer specified in the permit shall, within the period of thirty days from the date on which the holder fails or ceases to be employed in the employment, report in writing to an immigration officer of such failure or cessation.

(3) Any employer who fails to comply with the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence.

18.-(1) An immigration officer may by notice in writing require the employer of any person issued with a residence permit to furnish a return of all persons who are in his employment or who were in his employment during such period as may be specified in such notice.

(2) Any employer who fails to furnish such return within thirty days of the service on him by post of the notice or who makes a return which he knows or has reason to believe to be false in any material particular, shall be guilty of an offence.

19. Any permit, pass, certificate or other authority issued under this Act, and which was obtained by, or issued in consequence of, any fraud or misrepresentation or the concealment or non-disclosure, whether intentional or inadvertent, of any material particular, shall be, and be deemed always to have been, void and of no effect, and the holder thereof shall not be entitled to any protection thereunder.

20. Where any person to whom a residence permit has been issued with contravenes or fails to comply with any condition entered in, or annexed or deemed to have been annexed to, the permit, then without prejudice to any other proceedings which may be taken in respect of such contravention or failure--

(a) such permit shall expire forthwith; and

(b) if the security was furnished by way of deposit, such deposit may be forfeited;

(c) if the security was furnished by way of bond, then the Principal Immigration Officer may sue for and recover the amount secured by the bond.

21.-(1) Where a person who has been issued with one class of residence permit is subsequently granted a permit of another class, he shall surrender such former permit to an immigration officer for cancellation.

(2) Where any person to whom a Class A, Class B, or Class C, permit has been granted, leaves Tanzania permanently, such permit shall be cancelled by an immigration officer and such person shall surrender such permit to an immigration officer for such cancellation.

(3) Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence.
22.-(1) Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, the Principal Immigration Officer may, on application being made in behalf in the prescribed form by the holder of or the applicant for a residence permit, endorse on such residence permit the name or names of the wife and the dependent children of such holder or applicant accompanying him to Tanzania.

(2) An endorsement made under subsection (1) shall, unless the Minister in any particular case otherwise directs, expire with effect from the expiration of one month (or such further period as the Principal Immigration Officer may on application to him in that behalf in his discretion allow) from the death of the holder of the residence permit or the date when such wife or child ceases to be a dependent of such holder, or the date when the person whose name is so endorsed ceases to be the wife or, as the case may be, a child, within the meaning of this Act, of the holder, and the presence of such wife or, as the case may be, such child, in Tanzania shall, unless otherwise authorized under this Act, thereupon be unlawful.

(3) The wife and dependent children whose names have been endorsed under subsection (1) shall not engage in Tanzania in any employment, occupation, trade, business or profession, unless authorized to do so by the Principal Immigration Officer in the manner prescribed or unless such wife or child is granted a permit authorizing the holder being so employed or engaged.

PART IV
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

23. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, the Minister may, in his absolute discretion, prohibit the entry into or presence within Tanzania of any person (other than a citizen of Tanzania) or any category or class of persons and, for so long as such prohibition remains in force, the entry into or presence within Tanzania of such person or a person belonging to such category or class shall be unlawful.

24.- (1) The Minister may make an order (hereinafter referred to as a deportation order) requiring-
(a) any prohibited immigrant (other than a prohibited immigrant who is the holder of a valid pass or other authorization issued to him under the provisions of this Act); or
(b) any person whose entry into Tanzania was, or presence within Tanzania is, unlawful; or
(c) any person (other than a citizen of Tanzania) convicted of an offence against any of the provisions of this Act or any regulations made thereunder; or
(d) any person (other than a citizen of Tanzania) whose continued presence in Tanzania is, in the opinion of the President undesirable, to be deported from, and remain out of, Tanzania, either indefinitely or for the period specified in the order.

(2) A deportation order shall be carried into effect in such manner as the Minister may direct.
(3) A person against whom a deportation order is made may, if the Minister so directs, while awaiting deportation and while being conveyed to the place of departure, be kept in custody, and while so kept shall be deemed to be in lawful custody.

(4) Where any person is brought before a court under the provisions of this Act and the court is informed that an application for an order under this section has been made in respect of him, the court may direct that such person be detained in custody for any period not exceeding twenty-eight days.

(5) A deportation order shall remain in force for the period specified therein, unless sooner varied or revoked by the Minister, or, if no period is so specified, until varied or revoked by the Minister.

(6) Where a deportation order under this section is made against a person serving a sentence of imprisonment the order shall, if the President so directs, be implemented notwithstanding that the 'fall term of imprisonment has not been served, and any such direction by the President shall be a sufficient authority for the release of such person from prison for the purpose of his deportation.

25. Where in any proceedings under or for any of the purposes of this Act, any of the following questions is in issue, namely—

(a) whether any person is or is not a citizen of Tanzania; or

(b) whether any person's presence within Tanzania is lawful,

the burden to prove that such person is a citizen of Tanzania or that such person's presence in Tanzania is lawful shall lie upon the party contending that such person is a citizen of Tanzania or, as the case may be, that such person's presence in Tanzania is lawful.

26.- (1) Any person who—

(a) fails or refuses to answer any lawful and reasonable question put to him by any immigration officer, or in answer to any such question, gives any information which he knows or has reason to believe to be false;

(b) whether within or outside Tanzania, makes any false declaration, return or statement for the purpose of obtaining or assisting another person to obtain, any permit, certificate, authorization, pass or endorsement under this Act;

(c) alters any permit, certificate, pass, endorsement, authority or other document issued or made in pursuance of this Act, or any copy of any such document;

(d) allows or permits any permit, pass, certificate, authority or other document granted or issued to him to be used by any person not mentioned therein, or falsely represents himself to be the person to whom any permit, pass, certificate, authority or other document has been granted or issued;
(e) uses or has in his possession any forged or irregular passport, permit, certificate or pass, or any passport or similar document on which any visa or endorsement has been forged, or any passport, permit, certificate or pass which has been altered or issued without lawful authority;

(1) obstructs or impedes any immigration officer in the execution of his duties;

(g) misleads or attempts to mislead any immigration officer seeking, in the execution of his duties, information in relation to any matter;

(h) fails to furnish any list or information required to be furnished by him under this Act or regulations made hereunder;

(i) unlawfully enters or is unlawfully present within Tanzania in contravention of the provisions of this Act;

(j) being a prohibited immigrant, fails to comply with a lawful requirement of the Principal Immigration Officer to leave Tanzania;

(k) fails to comply with any term or condition imposed in respect of any permit, certificate or pass issued to him under the provisions of this Act or any regulations made hereunder, being a term or condition with which he is required to comply;

(l) employs any person who is not a citizen of Tanzania and who has no pass or permit authorizing him to be so employed;

(m) engages in any employment, occupation, trade, business or profession, whether or not for gain, profit or other consideration whatsoever, without being in possession of a valid residence permit or pass issued to him for such purpose;

(n) employs any person, whether or not for profit or other consideration whatsoever, who he knows or has reasonable cause to believe is committing an offence under paragraph (m);

(o) falsely represents any passport, entry permit, pass, written authority, consent or approval issued to another person as being such document issued to himself;

(p) aids or abets any person in committing any of the foregoing offences; or

(q) harbours any person who he knows or has reasonable grounds for believing has committed any of the foregoing offences, shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) Any person who commits an offence under this Act shall, except where any other penalty is specifically provided therefor, be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding thirty thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or to both such fine and imprisonment.
(3) Any person who having been deported from Tanzania under the provisions of this Act or any other law for the time being in force, returns to Tanzania while the deportation order is still in force shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both such fine and imprisonment, and may again be deported under the provisions of section 24.

(4) Where any prohibited immigrant enters Tanzania from any vessel, aircraft or vehicle, whether or not with the knowledge of the owner, agent or person in charge thereof, such owner, agent or person in charge shall each be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction therefor to a fine not exceeding three thousand shillings, and, whether or not any prosecution for an offence under this subsection has been commenced, the vessel, aircraft or vehicle may, by order of the court, be detained until provision has been made by the owner, agent or person in charge, as the case may be, to the satisfaction of an immigration officer for the conveyance out of Tanzania of such prohibited immigrant:

Provided that the provisions of this subsection shall not apply where the prohibited immigrant is the holder of a valid pass or other authorization issued to him under the provisions of this Act authorizing him to enter into and remain in Tanzania.

(5) Where any fine is imposed under the provisions of this Act upon any owner, agent or person in charge of any vessel, aircraft or vehicle, such vessel, aircraft or vehicle may, by order of the court, be detained until such fine has been paid, and in the event of non-payment of the fine within such time as the court may allow the court may order the attachment and sale of such vessel, aircraft or vehicle in execution of such order for payment of fine.

(6) Any police officer may, if he has reasonable cause to suspect that any person has contravened any of the provisions of this Act or of any regulations made hereunder and if he is of opinion that in order to prevent justice from being defeated it is necessary to arrest such person, arrest such person without warrant, and such person shall be brought before a magistrate as soon as possible after such arrest.

(7) In any proceedings for an offence under this section a person shall be deemed to know the contents of any declaration, return or statement which he has signed or marked for the purposes of or pursuant to any requirement of this Act or regulations made hereunder, whether or not he has read such declaration, return or statement.

27. No suit shall lie against any public officer in respect of anything done or omitted to be done by him in good faith in the exercise or purported exercise of any function conferred upon him by this Act.
28.-(1) The Minister, may make regulations-

(a) prescribing-
   (i) the terms and conditions subject to which any person may be granted a pass to re-enter Tanzania and the person who may issue such pass;
   (ii) the terms and conditions subject to which any person may be granted a pass enabling him to enter and remain within Tanzania, the period for which any such pass may be granted, the classes and categories of such passes and the
