FIRST SCHEDULE

THE COUNCIL

Interpretation
1. In this Schedule the "appointing authority" means, in the case of the Chairman, the President, and in the case of any other member of the Council, the Minister.

Composition
2. The Council shall consist of-
   (a) a Chairman who shall be appointed by the President;
   (b) not more than fifteen and not less than ten other members, who shall be appointed by the Minister.

Representation
3. In making appointments of members of the Council the Minister shall ensure that there is adequate representation on the Council of such organizations and professional and academic bodies as are likely to utilize the skills and disciplines to be promoted by the Institute and shall further ensure that every person appointed by him is a person who, in his opinion, has the necessary experience or qualification to enable him to make useful contribution to the deliberations of the Council and to assist the Council in the discharge of its functions.

Tenure of appointment
4. Every member of the Council shall continue to hold office as such until his appointment is revoked by the appointing authority.

Absence from three consecutive meetings
5. Where any member absents himself from three consecutive meetings of the Council without reasonable excuse the Council shall advise the appointing authority of the fact and the appointing authority may, if it deems fit so to do, terminate the appointment of the member and appoint another member in his place.

Appointment of temporary member
6. Where any member is by reason of illness, infirmity or absence from the United Republic, unable to attend any meeting of the Council, the Minister may appoint a temporary member in his place and such temporary member shall cease to hold office on the resumption of office by the substantive member.

Vice-Chairman
7. The Council shall elect one of its members to be the Vice-Chairman and any member elected as Vice-Chairman shall subject to his continuing to be a member, hold office of Vice-Chairman for a term of one year from the date of his election, and shall be eligible to be re-elected.
