(3) If, on demand by an authorized employee, any person refuses to pay the fare and excess charge for which he is liable under this section, any authorized employee or any police officer may, if there is reasonable ground to believe that there would be difficulty or delay in bringing such person before a court by any other means, arrest and detain that person without a warrant and bring him, as soon as practicable, before a court having jurisdiction to deal with him in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

56.- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, every passenger shall, on payment of the appropriate charge, if any, be entitled to deliver his luggage to an authorized employee for carriage by the Authority

(b) determine the rates and other charges for the carriage or warehousing of goods and for any other service or facility provided by the Authority; and such rates and other charges shall be published in the Tariff Book and shall, subject as aforesaid, have effect from the date of such publication or from such later date as may be specified therein.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), the Authority may, in relation to the special circumstances of any particular case, determine conditions, rates and other charges applicable to such case for the carriage or warehousing of goods by the Authority or for any other service or facility; and such conditions, rates and other charges shall have immediate effect in relation to such case:

Provided that such conditions, rates and other charges shall, if they are of a continuing nature, be available to the public on request.

58. Subject to the provisions of this Act, any person who has tendered to an authorized employee the appropriate rates and other charges, and has complied with the conditions upon which goods may be accepted for carriage by the Authority, shall be entitled to obtain a receipt for such goods and have such goods carried by the Authority in accordance with the conditions of carriage:

(b) the notice referred to in subsection (1) cannot for any reason be served; or the Authority may, within a reasonable time not being less than three months (except in the case of perishable goods), sell the goods and retain the proceeds of the sale thereof:

Provided that no imported goods shall be sold under this section until they have been entered for home consumption in accordance with the provisions of any customs law in force in the United Republic.

62. Where-

(b) any person claiming any goods in the possession of the Authority does not produce valid documents showing that he is entitled to take delivery thereof, the Authority may withhold delivery of such goods or proceeds until the person appearing to the General Manager to be entitled thereto has given an indemnity to his satisfaction against the claim of any other person with respect to such goods or proceeds.

63.- (1) No person shall take with him upon any train or vehicle of the Authority or tender to the Authority for carriage or warehousing any goods to which this section applies without giving notice of the nature of such goods-for the services and facilities provided by the Authority.

65.- (1) Whenever the Authority considers that the maintenance of any structure of rates, fares and other charges in respect of the services provided by the Authority under this Act will produce a greater or lesser revenue than is reasonably required to cover operating expenses, financial commitments and the replacement of assets, the Authority may, subject to the provisions of section 21, make such alterations in the said rates, fares and other charges as may be necessary to produce in future years an appropriate increase or decrease, as the case may require, in the revenue of the Authority, and, in considering any proposals for such alterations, the Authority shall disregard any revenue derived from traffic or services of a temporary or non-continuing nature.
(2) Whenever the Authority proposes to alter any rates, fares or other charges under section 64 the Authority shall-
