(b) if executed in that behalf by one member of the Council and a member of the staff of the Council both of whom have been appointed by the Council for that purpose.

(2) A deed, instrument, contract or other document executed in accordance with subsection (1) shall, subject to any exception that may be taken thereto on any ground other than that of competence of the party executing the same on behalf of the Council, be effectual in law to bind the Council and its successors and may be varied or discharged in like manner as that in which it was executed.

SCHEDULE

SECTION 3 (2)

CONSTITUTION AND PROCEEDINGS OF THE COUNCIL

1.-(1) The Council shall consist of-
(a) a Chairman, who shall be appointed by the President;
(b) twenty-nine other members who shall be appointed by the Minister.

(2) A member of the Council shall, unless his appointment is sooner terminated by the Minister or he otherwise ceases to be a member hold office for such period as the Minister may specify in his appointment or, if no such period is specified, for a period of three years from the date of his appointment, and shall be eligible for re-appointment.

(3) Any member of the Council may at any time resign by giving notice in writing to the Minister and from the date of the receipt by the Minister of the notice, he shall cease to be a member of the Council.

(4) If any member of the Council is without the permission of the Council absent from more than four consecutive meetings of the Council or without such period from the United Republic for a period exceeding one year he shall cease to be a member of the Council.

2. Where any member of the Council ceases to be a member before the normal expiration of his term of office, the Minister after consulting the Council may appoint another person in his stead to hold office until such first-named person’s term of office would have expired had he not ceased to be a member as aforesaid.

3. The Council shall elect from amongst its members a Vice-Chairman who shall hold office for one year but shall be eligible for re-election.

4.-(1) The Council shall meet at such times as may be necessary or expedient for the transaction of business.

(2) At any meeting of the Council fifteen members thereof shall constitute a quorum.

(3) At any meeting of the Council, the Chairman shall preside or, in the absence of the Chairman, the Vice-Chairman shall preside or if the Vice-Chairman is also absent, the members present at the meeting shall elect one of their number to be Chairman for that meeting.

(4) In the event of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to his deliberative vote.

(5) Minutes in proper form of each meeting of the Council shall be kept and shall be confirmed by the Council at the next meeting and signed by the Chairman of that meeting.
5. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 4 relating to a quorum, the Council may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the membership thereof and no act or proceeding of the Council shall be invalid by reason only of some defect in the appointment of a person who purports to be a member thereof.

6. The members of the Council shall be paid out of the funds thereof such expenses as the Minister may from time to time determine.

Passed in the National Assembly on the thirteenth day of March, 1974.
