PART II

THE PARASTATAL PENSIONS SCHEME

4. There is hereby established a scheme to be called the Parastatal Pensions Scheme.

5. All employees who are confirmed in a pensionable office in the service shall become, with effect from the date of commencement of the scheme or from the date of employment whichever date last occurs, members of the scheme:

Provided that-

(a) no employee who has attained the age of forty years as at the date of first employment by a parastatal organization shall be eligible to become a member of the scheme; and

(b) where, at the commencement of the scheme an employee has attained the age of forty years, he shall not be eligible to become a member of the scheme unless, at such date, he has to his credit such length of qualifying service as, when aggregated with the period for which he would serve as an employee were he to continue as such an employee until his retirement upon attaining the age of fifty years, would be not less than ten years.
PART III

THE PARASTATAL PENSIONS FUND

6.-(1) There is hereby established a Fund to be called the Parastatal Pensions Fund into which shall be paid any contributions and other moneys required or permitted by this Act.

(2) There may be charged on and paid out of the Fund all such sums of money as may from time to time be granted by way of pension, gratuity or other benefits, including the expenses of administration, as are authorized by this Act.

(3) An account styled "the Parastatal Pensions Fund Account" shall be kept with such bank or banks as the Board shall from time to time approve and all moneys payable into the Fund together with the income from investment of the Fund and other moneys required to be paid into the Fund shall be deposited in the Parastatal Pensions Fund account.

7. The Board shall be responsible for the management and control of the Fund in accordance with the provisions of this Act:

Provided that the Corporation shall, subject to the direction of the Board, be responsible for the day-to-day administration of the Fund and the Scheme.

8.-(1) Each member shall make, as from the date of becoming a member, a contribution to the Fund at the rate of five per centum of his salary and such contribution shall be deducted from his salary monthly. The employer of the member shall contribute each month such amount as will be necessary to meet the Board's obligations in respect of the member under this Act, as will be determined by the Board in consultation with the Minister:

Provided that where, at the time of becoming a member, a person was contributing to any employee's terminal benefits scheme, he shall make a monthly contribution to the Fund, as shall be determined by the Board in consultation with the Minister, of an amount which shall not be more than what he would have contributed to that employee's terminal benefits scheme had that scheme continued to be operative.

(2) Both the member's and the employer's contributions shall be remitted by the employer to the Corporation for payment into the Fund within thirty days after the end of the month to which they relate.

9. (1) Where any employer fails to remit to the Corporation the whole or any part of the contributions required to be remitted by him under subsection (2) of section 8 within the time prescribed by that subsection, a sum equal to five per centum of the amount which such employer has failed to remit shall become due from and payable by such employer by way of additional contribution and if such contribution or additional contribution remains unpaid to the Corporation for a period of thirty days or more after the same shall have become payable, the

Management of the Fund

Compulsory contribution

Additional contributions by way of penalty where payment delay employer shall become liable to pay by way of further additional contribution of five per centum of the aggregate amount remaining unpaid for each month or part thereof after such date:

Provided that the Corporation may, if it thin fit, remit in whole or in part any penalty imposed by this section.

(2) Where an employer has persistently failed to remit to the Corporation any contributions which under this Act are required to be remitted, the Corporation shall report the matter to the Minister.

(3) Where a report in terms of subsection (2) is made to the Minister, the Minister shall direct the employer to remit to the Corporation any contributions and additional contributions which have not been so remitted, and may further direct that the accounting officer of the employer who has failed to remit the contributions pay a penalty of an amount not exceeding five per centum of the contributions and additional contributions which have not been remitted and the employer shall comply with any such direction.

10.-(1) Any contribution or additional contribution Payable under this Act shall be a debt due to the Board and shall be recoverable accordingly.

(2) In the event of any parastatal organization being wound up before any contribution or additional contribution payable under this Act have been made, such contribution or additional contribution shall constitute a first charge on the distribution of the assets of the parastatal organization being so wound up.

11. Each employer shall, in respect of his employees who become members of the scheme, keep and maintain such records and submit such returns as the Board or the Corporation may from time to time direct.

12. For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that the moneys in the Fund shall not constitute or be regarded as funds of the Board but shall, for the purposes of this Act and all other written laws, be deemed to be funds held by the Board in trust for the members of the Scheme to be administered by the Board in accordance with the provisions of this Act:

Provided that it shall be lawful for the Board to make payments out of the Fund for any of the purposes for which payments out of the Fund are expressly authorized by this Act.

13.- (1) Subject to any directions of the Minister in that behalf, the Board may, from time to time, invest moneys in the Fund which are surplus to current needs, in accordance with the provisions of the Trustees Investment Act.

(2) The Board may, and shall if so directed by the Minister, establish and maintain such subsidiary funds of the Fund as the Board or the Minister may consider necessary or expedient and shall make into or from any such subsidiary fund such payments as the Board may deem fit or in the case of subsidiary fund established pursuant to the direction of the Minister, as the Minister may direct.
14.-(1) The Board shall cause to be kept and maintained proper books of accounts and records with respect to-

(a) the receipt and expenditure of moneys and other financial transactions of the Fund;

(b) the assets and liabilities of the Fund, and shall cause to be made out, for every financial year, a balance sheet and a statement showing details of the income and expenditure of the Fund and all its assets and liabilities.

(2) Not later than six months after the close of every financial year, the accounts including the balance sheet of the Fund relating to the financial year shall be audited by the Tanzania Audit Corporation established by the Tanzania Audit Corporation Act, 1968.

(3) As soon as the accounts of the Fund have been audited, and in any case not later than six months after such audit, the Board shall submit to the Minister a copy of the audited statement of accounts together with a copy of the report thereon made by the auditors.

(4) As soon as practicable after receipt by him of the copy of the statement together with the copy of the report submitted pursuant to subsection (3), the Minister shall lay a copy of the statement together with a copy of the auditor’s report before the National Assembly.

15. The Board shall, within six months after the end of each financial year, make a report to the Minister on the operations of the Fund during that financial year, and the Minister shall lay a copy of such report before the National Assembly together with a copy of the statement of accounts required to be laid before the National Assembly by section 14:

16. (1) The Board shall, at intervals of not less than five years or at any time when the Minister so directs, cause the assets and liabilities of the Fund to be evaluated by an actuary.

(2) A report of the evaluation carried out in terms of subsection (1) shall be submitted to the Minister within such time and in such manner as the Minister may direct and upon receipt of such report, the Minister shall take such measures as he may consider necessary or expedient for the avoidance of any current or future deficiency in the Fund, and may direct the employers to increase their contributions to the Fund by such revised rate as he may determine.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE PARASTATAL PENSIONS FUND

17.- (1) There is hereby established a Board of Trustees of the Parastatal Pensions Fund.

(2) The Board shall be a body corporate and in corporate name, be capable of-

(a) suing and being sued;

(b) taking, purchasing or otherwise acquiring, holding, charging and disposing of property, movable or immovable, and
(c) entering into contracts and doing and performing all such other things or acts for the proper performance of its functions under this Act which may lawfully be done or performed by a body corporate.

(3) The provisions of the First Schedule to this Act shall have effect as to the composition of the Board, the appointment and termination of the appointment of its members, the proceedings of the Board and such other matters in relation to the Board and its members as are provided for therein.

(4) The Minister may, by order in the Gazette, amend, vary or replace all or any of the provisions of the First Schedule to this Act.

18. The functions of the Board shall be-

(a) to manage and administer the Fund in accordance with the provisions of this Act;

(b) to invest moneys available in the Fund;

(c) to be responsible for the disbursement of pension, gratuities and other benefits in accordance with the provisions of this Act;

(d) to advise the Minister on matters relating to the administration of this Act; and

(e) to do all such acts and things, to enter into all such transactions as, in the opinion of the Board, may be necessary for the proper and efficient administration of the Fund.

19. It shall be the duty of the Board-

(a) to manage and administer the Fund in accordance with the highest standards which a person holding any fund in a fiduciary capacity on behalf of another may reasonably be expected to conform to;

(b) to protect, safeguard and promote the interests of the members;

(c) to do all such acts and things as the Board may reasonably be expected to do-

(i) to uphold and support the credit of the Board;

(ii) to obtain and justify the confidence of Parastatal organizations in general and of the members in particular; and

(iii) to avert and minimize any loss to the Fund.

20.- (1) The members of the Board shall be entitled to receive such remuneration, allowances and other benefits as the Minister may direct, and all such remuneration, allowances and other benefits shall be charged to the Fund.

(2) No remuneration or allowance except such allowances for expenses as may be expressly authorized by the Minister, shall be paid to any member of the Board who is a public officer.
21. (1) The Board may from time to time by writing delegate, subject to such terms, conditions and restrictions as it may specify, to any committee of the Board or to the Corporation all or any of the functions, authorities or duties conferred upon the Board by or under this Act and where any delegation is so made the delegated function, power, authority or duty may be performed or, as the case may be, exercised by the delegate subject to the terms, conditions and restrictions specified in writing.

(2) The Board may revoke a delegation made by it under this section.

(3) No delegation made under this section shall prevent the Board from itself performing or exercising the function, power, authority or duty delegated.

(4) In the event of any dispute between the Board and the Corporation on or relation to any matter arising from delegation or purported delegation made under this Act, the dispute shall be referred to, the Minister whose decision thereon shall be final and binding on the parties.

22. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of sections 18 and 19, the duties of the Corporation in relation to the Board shall be-

(a) to receive all the contributions and other moneys which are required to be paid into the Fund;

(b) to keep and maintain register of all members contributing to the Fund and any other registers which under this Act or regulations made there under may be required to be kept;

(c) to establish and maintain a record in respect of each member of all payments made by such member and his employer by way of contributions;

(d) to pay pensions, gratuities, withdrawal, and other benefits to members or their dependants in accordance with the provisions of this Act;

(e) to provide secretarial services to the Board;

(f) to furnish the Board with such information as it may reasonably require for the performance of its functions;

(g) to do all such other functions as may from time to time be delegated to it in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) The Corporation shall be entitled to such fee as the Minister may from time to time prescribe in relation to the services rendered by it under this Act and such fee shall be paid out of the Fund in such manner as the Minister may direct.

23. The Minister may give to the Board directions of a general or specific nature as to the performance by the Board of any of its functions under this Act, or in relation to any matter appearing to the Minister to affect the national interest and the Board shall give effect to every such direction.
PART V
RETIREMENT

24.- (1) It shall be lawful for any employer to require any member to retire from the service at any time after he attains the age of fifty years and for any member to elect so to retire at any time after he attains such age or, in the case of a female member, on marriage:

Provided that-

No member may continue to serve after he attains the age of fifty-five years unless-

(i) the appropriate authority considers it to be in the public interest that such member should so continue to serve; and

(ii) such member consents in writing to continue to serve as aforesaid.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), no member shall be permitted to continue in the service on pensionable terms after he attains the age of sixty years.

(3) For the purposes of this section the appropriate authority shall be-

(a) in the case of appointments where the appointing authority is the President, the President;

(b) in all other cases, the Minister responsible for the Parastatal organization in which the member is employed.

PART VI
GRANTING OF PENSIONS AND GRATUITIES

25.- (1) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as conferring on a member or his survivors an absolute right to any pension, gratuity or survivors' benefits, as the case may be, payable under the provisions of this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of subsection (1), where it is established to the satisfaction of the Board that a member has been guilty of negligence, irregularity or misconduct, the pension, gratuity or other benefit may be reduced or altogether withheld.

26. No pension or gratuity shall be awarded under this Act to any member except on his retirement from the service in one of the following circumstances-

(a) on or after attaining the age of fifty years

(b) on medical evidence to the satisfaction of the employer that he is incapable by reason of any infirmity of mind or body of discharging the duties of his office and that such infirmity is likely to be permanent;
(c) on compulsory retirement for the purpose of facilitating improvement in the organization of his employer, by which greater efficiency or economy may be effected or compulsory retirement following the winding up of the organization of his employer;

(d) in the case of transfer to public service, in circumstances in which he is permitted by the law or regulation of such service to retire on pension or gratuity;

(e) in the case of removal from the service in the public interest as provided in this Act;

(f) on retirement from the service with the consent of or on the directions of the President where the President by writing under his hand, declares that paragraph shall apply to him:

Provided that a gratuity may be granted to a female member, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, who retires for the reason that she has married or is about to marry, notwithstanding that she is not otherwise eligible under this section for the grant of any pension, gratuity or other allowance.

27. No pension or gratuity shall be awarded under this Act to any member, in respect of any service--

(a) while on probation unless immediately following such period of probation, the member shall have been confirmed in his appointment; or

(b) while he was absent from duty on leave without salary unless it is established to the satisfaction of the Board that--

(i) such leave was granted on grounds of public policy; and

(ii) the employer undertakes to pay into the Fund both the employee's and the employer's contributions for the period the employee was so absent; or

(c) while under the age of eighteen years.

28.- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a member who have had not less than an aggregate of ten years qualifying service may, on retirement, be granted-

(a) reduced annual pension of an amount equal to three-fourths of the specified amount; and

(b) a commuted pension gratuity equal to twelve and one-half times the one fourth of the specified amount, unless the said member exercises an option in writing to be paid in lieu of such reduced pension and commuted pension gratuity the specified amount.

(2) For the purposes of this section "specified amount" means-

(a) in relation to the period of service referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition "Pensionable service- in subsection (1) of section 2, an annual amount equal to one nine hundred and sixtieth of the member's annual pensionable emoluments for each completed month of his pensionable service;
(b) in relation to the period of service referred to in Paragraph (b) of the definition "pensionable service" in subsection (1) of section 2, an annual amount equal to the pension computation factor (which applied to the member under the employee’s terminal benefit scheme by which he was governed prior to his becoming a member of the scheme established by this Act) of the member’s annual pensionable emoluments for each completed month of his pensionable service.

(3) The option referred to in subsection (1) of this section shall be exercisable, and if it has already been exercised, may be revoked, not later than the day immediately preceding the date of his retirement from the service.

29.- (1) Except in cases provided for by subsection (2), a pension granted to a member under this Act shall not exceed two, thirds, of the highest pensionable emoluments drawn, by him at any time in the course of his service.

(2) A member who has been granted a pension in respect of his service shall not at any time draw from the Fund an amount of pension which when added to the amount of any pension drawn in respect of his public service, exceed two-thirds of the highest pensionable emoluments enjoyed by him at any time in the course of his parastatal or public service.

(3) Where the limitation specified by subsection (2) operates, the amount of the pension drawn from the Fund shall be subject to the approval of the Board, in order that it may be determined with due regard to the amount of any pension to be drawn in respect of the public service.

30. Where a member is removed from the service in the public interest and a pension or gratuity cannot otherwise be awarded to him under the provisions of this Act, the Board may, if it considers fit, award such pension or gratuity it considers just and proper, not exceeding in amount that for which the member would be eligible if he retired from the service in circumstances described in subsection (b) of section 26.

31. Where a member who holds a pensionable office is transferred to the public service and such transfer is approved by the Principal Secretary to the President as being in the public interest, he may, on retirement, from such public service in circumstances entitling him to a pension or gratuity in respect of his public service, be awarded a pension or gratuity under this Act in respect of the period during which he was a member of the scheme and calculated with reference to the benefits under the provisions of this Act;

Provided that-

(a) his pensionable emoluments for the purposes of this section shall be those which are taken for computing his pension in the public service;
(b) where such member ceases to be employed in the public service in circumstances which do not entitle him to any pension or gratuity in respect of his public service, such member shall not be entitled to any pension or gratuity under this section but he may be paid the withdrawal benefits for which he may qualify under the provisions of section 44.

32.-(1) If any member to whom a pension or gratuity has been granted under this Act is sentenced to a term of imprisonment by any competent court for any offence involving moral turpitude, or is detained pursuant to an Order made under the Preventive Detention Act, 1962, the pension shall cease as from the date of such imprisonment or detention unless otherwise decided by the Minister.

(2) If any member is sentenced or detained as aforesaid after retirement in circumstances in which he is eligible for a pension or gratuity under this Act but before the pension or gratuity is granted then the provisions of subsection (1) shall apply as respects any pension or gratuity which may be granted to him.

(3) Where a pension or gratuity ceases by reason of this section, it shall be lawful for the Board to direct all or any part of the moneys to which such member would have been entitled by way of pension or gratuity had he not been sentenced or detained as aforesaid, to be paid to, or applied for the maintenance or benefit of, during the period of his imprisonment or detention, his dependants in such proportions and manner as the Board thinks proper:

Provided that any payment made under this subsection shall cease upon the completion by such member of his sentence or his release from such detention.

(4) Where a pension has ceased under this section following a conviction and the member so convicted is subsequently accorded a free pardon, the pension shall be restored to him with effect from the date when it so ceased:

Provided that in determining whether arrears of such pension are payable to such member and in computing the amount thereof, account shall be taken of, all moneys paid or applied under subsection (3.)

(5) The provision of this section shall apply, mutatis mutandis where a survivor is sentenced or detained as aforesaid.

33. A pension or gratuity awarded under this Act shall not be assignable or transferable except for the purpose of satisfying-

(a) a debt due to the Government or any parastatal organization; or

(b) an order of any competent court for the periodical payment of sums of money towards the maintenance of the dependants of the member to whom the pension or gratuity has been awarded, and shall not be liable to be attached, sequestered (or levied upon for or in respect of any other debt or claim. whatsoever.

34. Every member, otherwise qualified for a pension, who has not completed a minimum period of ten years qualifying service may, on retirement, be awarded a gratuity not exceeding five times such specified amount referred to in subsection (2) of section 28 as might have been computed if there had been no qualifying Period provided that the payment under this section shall not be less than the aggregate of the members own contributions to the Fund With interest compounded at the rate of five per centum per annum.

35.-(1) Where a female member, having held a pensionable office or offices in the parastatal service for not less than five years and having been confirmed in a Pensionable office, marries or is about to marry, she may elect-

(a) to retire from the parastatal service and, in such case, if she is otherwise eligible for the grant of a pension or a gratuity, she may be granted such pension or gratuity, as the case may be, or, if she is not so eligible, she may be granted a gratuity not exceeding one-twelfth of a month's pensionable emoluments for each completed month of pensionable service or one year's pensionable emoluments, whichever shall be the less; or

(b) to continue in the parastatal service on pensionable terms, and, in such case, on her subsequent retirement from the parastatal service if she is otherwise eligible for the grant of pension or gratuity, she may be granted such pension or gratuity, as the case may be, or, if she is not so eligible, she may be granted the gratuity for which she would have been eligible under sub-paragraph (a) had she retired from the service on the date of her marriage; or

(c) to continue in the parastatal service otherwise than on pensionable terms, and, in such case, on her subsequent retirement from the service, she may be granted the gratuity for which she would have been eligible under sub-paragraph (a) had she retired from the service on the date of her marriage.

(2) No person shall be granted a gratuity under this section unless she produce, within six months after her retirement or such longer period as the Board may allow, satisfactory evidence of her marriage.

36. Where a member to whom a pension has been granted under this Act is re-employed in the parastatal service, the payment of his pension, or any part thereof, may, with his consent and if the Board thinks fit, be suspended during the period of such re-employment.

37. Every pension awarded to a member under this Act Shall be subject to the express condition that unless the member has attained the age of fifty Years, he may be recalled for service and to accept an office which is not less in value than the office he held at the date of his retirement from the service, if the pensioner refuses to accept such office the Minister may direct that the pension payable to such pensioner be suspended until he reaches the age of fifty years.
PART VII
SURVIVORS' BENEFITS

38. In this Part unless the context otherwise requires, "dependant" in relation to a deceased member means-

(a) where the deceased member was a male, his widow or where immediately preceding his death, he was married to two or more wives, all his widows;

(b) where the deceased member was a female, the husband of such deceased member who satisfies the Board that he was wholly or substantially dependent upon the member's income for his livelihood;

(q) every child of the deceased member under the apparent age of eighteen years who was wholly or substantially dependent upon the deceased member's income for his livelihood but does not include any married daughter living with her husband immediately preceding the death of the deceased member; and

(d) the immediate parents of the deceased member, who satisfy the Board that they were wholly or substantially dependent upon the deceased member's income for their livelihood.

39.- (1) Where a member dies while in the service, it shall be lawful for the Board to grant to his legal personal representative a gratuity of an amount not exceeding either his annual pensionable emoluments, or his commuted pension gratuity, if any, whichever is the greater.

(2) Where a member who has retired from the service on pension dies before he has received by way of pension or reduced pension and gratuity or other benefits under this Act an amount which is equivalent to the amount which might have been granted to his legal personal representative under subsection (1) of this section had such member died while still in the service, it shall be lawful for the Board to grant to the legal personal representative of such member a gratuity of an amount not exceeding the difference between the amount which has already been paid to such member by way of pension or reduced pension and gratuity or other benefits under this Act and the amount which might have been granted to his legal personal representative under subsection (1) of this section had such member died while still in the service.

(3) For the purposes of this section-

"annual pensionable emoluments" means the emoluments which would be taken for the purposes of computing any pension or gratuity granted to the member under this Act if he had retired from the service in circumstances described in paragraph (b) of section 26;

"commuted pension gratuity" means the gratuity which might have been granted to the member under section 28 if he had retired from the parastatal service at the date of his death in circumstances described in paragraph (b) of section 26,
"legal personal representative" includes, m Any case where the gratuity does 'not exceed shillings 10,000/-, such person as the Board may determine.

40.- (1) Where a member who has completed not less than ten years of qualifying service dies whilst in the service, his dependants may be granted, with effect from the date following that of the death of the member, a survivors' benefit under this section in addition to the death gratuity payable to the estate of the deceased member under the provisions of section 39.

(2) The survivors' benefit under this section shall be of an amount equal to three-fourths of the specified amount referred to in subsection (2) of section 28 and such specified amount shall be ascertained as if the deceased member had retired immediately preceding his death in circumstances described m paragraph (b) of section 26.

(3) The distribution of survivors' benefit as between the dependants shall be made in accordance with the intestate law of succession governing the community to which the deceased member belonged.

(4) The payment of survivors' benefit shall cease upon expiry of a period of three years from the date following that of the death of the deceased member or on the recipients death, whichever shall be the earlier save that-

(a) in the case of any payment of a survivors' benefit or any portion thereof being paid to a widow who remarries within a period of three years aforesaid, the payment shall cease upon such remarriage;

(b) in the case of any dependent child, the payment shall cease upon such child attaining the age of eighteen years.

(5) The provisions of this section shall apply, mutatis mutandis, where a former member in receipt of a pension under this Act dies within a period of three years immediately Mowing his retirement on pension provided that the survivors' benefit payable in such, a case shall not exceed the amount of pension which was being paid to the deceased member immediately preceding his death under the provisions of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 28 and provided further that the survivors' benefits shall be payable only for the balance of the period of three years from the date of retirement on pension of the deceased member.

(6) Where any portion of survivors' benefit -payable under this section ceases to be payable by reason of the death of the recipient or remarriage of the widow or any dependent child attaining the age of eighteen years during the aforesaid period of three years to following the death of the deceased member, such portion shall, for the remaining period, be divided amongst other dependants in the proportion in which they would have been entitled under the appropriate law of succession and the dependant whose portion has so ceased not been entitled to any survivors' benefit immediately Mowing the death of the deceased member.
(7) Where a member dies in, the service-

   (i) after not less than ten years of qualifying service but leaving no dependants surviving him, or

   (ii) after less than ten years, of qualifying service irrespective of whether or not he leaves dependants surviving him, there may be awarded to his estate only the death gratuity under the provisions of section 39. No other survivors benefit shall be payable in such cases.

41. Every pension or survivors benefit payable under the provisions of this Act shall be payable monthly in arrear.

42. Subject to the provisions of section 40, every pension awarded under the provisions of this Act shall, unless it has sooner ceased, cease upon the date following that of the death of the person to whom it was awarded.

43. Where any pension, gratuity or benefit become payable by the Board to a member or his dependants either on the Cessation of pension under section, 32 or by way of survivors benefit under section 40, it shall be lawful for the Board to enter into an arrangement with the Public Trustee or other public officer whereby such payment shall be made to such Public Trustee or public officer who shall undertake the distribution of the payment amongst the persons entitled thereto.

44. Where a member ceases to be employed in circumstances in which he is not eligible for any pension, gratuity or any other benefit under the provisions of this Act, he shall be refunded the amount of his own contributions to the Fund, and where he has completed not less than five years of service and the cessation is not due to dismissal for misconduct, an interest compounded at the rate of five per centum. per annum of the members' contributions may be paid to him.

PART VIII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

45.- (1) Where a member immediately prior to the commencement of this Act was a member of an existing non-statutory employees’ terminal benefits scheme operated by or on behalf of his employer and under which he qualified for the grant of a pension on retirement, his membership of such scheme shall cease upon his becoming a member of the scheme established by this Act.

(2) Notwithstanding such cessation of membership of such employees, terminal benefits scheme where a member was, in respect of his service prior to his becoming a member of the scheme established by this Act, governed by a pension computation factor which is more advantageous than that provided for in paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section 28 he shall continue to be governed by the said more advantageous pension computation factor in respect of his membership of the scheme established by this Act:

Provided that where a member is allowed to retain his more advantageous pension computation factor, the member and his employers shall be required to contribute to the Fund at such rate or rates as are determined by the Board in consultation with the Minister. Subject to the provisions of section 16 (2), any such rate or rates shall not be higher than those at which the member and his employer could have contributed under the employees' terminal benefits scheme by which the member was governed immediately prior to his becoming a member of the scheme established by this Act.

(3) The Minister may direct any public officer or the Board or the Corporation to negotiate with the employers or Trustees operating the employers' terminal benefits scheme, whose members have, consequent upon the enactment of this Act, ceased to be members of such employees' terminal benefits schemes, for the winding up of such schemes and for amalgamating the assets with or incorporating into the scheme established by this Act. In concluding any such negotiations, regard shall be had to the protection of the employee benefits already earned under such employees' terminal benefits scheme:

Provided that any negotiation concluded under this subsection shall not take effect without the prior approval of the Minister.

(4) No member shall be entitled to object to the application of the provisions of this section in relation to him on the ground that the cessation of his membership of any other employee terminal benefits scheme is contrary to any rights conferred upon him by any other written law.
