President

21/9/92

An Act to provide for the revocation of exemptions and remissions of tax granted under various tax laws and for related or connected matters

ENACTED by the Parliament of the United Republic of Tanzania.

1. This Act may be cited as the Miscellaneous Tax Exemptions and Remission Revocation Act, 1992 and shall be deemed to have come into operation on 19th June, 1992.

Short title and commencement

2. Subject to section 3 of this section, the tax exemptions or remissions granted pursuant to or under the provisions of the written laws specified in the Schedule to this Act, are hereby revoked.

Revocation of tax exemptions and remissions

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 2, the revocation under this Act shall not—

Revocation not to apply to certain exemptions and remissions

- (a) apply to any subsisting exemption or remission granted pursuant to or in accordance with the terms or conditions of any contract, treaty or other agreement entered into prior to this Act, between the Government of the United Republic and any other government or international organization or other foreign body engaged in any project or undertaking within the United Republic;
- (b) apply to any subsisting exemptions or remissions granted in favour of religious or charitable organizations;

(c) operate to revive the liability to pay any tax which had become due and payable but exempted or remitted prior to this Act

Statutory powers not affected by revocation

4. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as detracting from or otherwise adversely affecting the statutory power to grant exemption or remission under the aforesaid written laws.
