(ii) in a case failing under paragraph (a) also presume, unless the contrary is provide, the truth of the contents of such document.

44.-(1) Any officer who is authorized under this Act may, during the course of any enquiry in connection with the contravention of any provision of this Act-

(a) call for information from any person for the purpose of satisfying himself whether there has been any contravention of the provisions of this Act or any rule or order made thereunder;

(b) require any person to produce or deliver any document or thing useful or relevant to the inquiry;

(2) An officer acting in exercise of powers vested in him under any provision of this Act, or any rule or order made thereunder shall not be compelled to say whence he got any information as to the commission of any offence.

PART VII

FORFEITURE OF PROPERTY DERIVED FROM, OR USED IN ILLICIT TRAFFIC

45.-(1) Subject to this Part, where any person has been convicted for an offence under Part IV, the property owned by him on the date of the conviction or acquired by him after that date, shall be forfeited to the Government in accordance with the provisions of the Proceeds of Crime Act, 1991.

(2) The provision of subsection (1) shall apply to-

(a) every person who has been convicted of an offence under this Act;

(b) every person who has been convicted of a similar offence by a competent court of criminal jurisdiction outside the United Republic;

(c) every associate of a person referred in paragraphs (a) and (b).
(3) For the purpose of this Part, unless that context requires otherwise, 'associate' means:

(i) any individual who had been or is managing the affairs or keeping the accounts of such person;

(ii) the trustee of any trust, where-

(a) the trust has been created by such person; or

(b) the value of the assets contributed by such person (including the value of the assets, if any, contributed by him earlier) to the trust amounts to not less than twenty percent of the value of the assets of the trust.

(iii) where the authorized officer for reason in writing, considers that any property of such person is held on his behalf by any other person, officer shall order such other person deliver the property for the purpose of confiscation.

46.--(1) No person shall hold any illegally acquired property either by himself or through any other person on his behalf.

(2) Where any person hold any illegally acquired property in contravention of the provision of subsection (1), such property shall be forfeited to the Commission in accordance with Part IV of the Proceeds of Crime Act, 1991.

(3) No property shall be forfeited under this Part if such property was acquired by a person to whom this Act applied before a period of three years from the date on which he was charged for an offence relating to illicit traffic.

47.-(1) The Commission may authorize any officer to inquire, investigate or survey any person or group of persons as it may by order, direct and such officer shall on receipt of information that any person to whom this Part applies has been charged with any offence whether committed in the United Republic or outside proceed to take all steps committed in the United Republic or outside proceed to take all steps

(2) Where, an officer conducting an inquiry or investigation under subsection (1) has reason to believe that any property in relation to which such inquiry or investigation is being conducted is, an illegally acquired property and such property is likely to be concealed, transferred or dealt with in any manner which will result in frustrating any proceeding relating to forfeiture of such property under this Part, he may make an order for seizing such property and where it is not practicable to seize such property, he may make an order that such property shall not be transferred or otherwise dealt with, except with the prior permission of the officer making such order, or of the competent authority and a copy of such order shall be served on the person concerned.
(3) If any property referred to; in subsection (4) is transferred by any mode, such transfer shall if the property is forfeited to the Commission be deemed to be void.

(4) An officer making an investigation may call upon the person concerned within a period of thirty days to indicate the sources of his income, earnings or assets out of which or by means of which he has acquired such property and to show cause why all or any of such properties should not be declared illegally acquired and forfeited to the Commission.

(5) If the person affected does not appear before the authorized officer to represent his case within the specified period, that officer may proceed to record a finding on the basis of evidence available before him.

48. In any proceedings under this Part, the burden of proving that any property is not illegally acquired property shall be on the person affected.

49. Where an authorized officer declares that any property stand of being forfeited to the Commission and it is a case where the source of only a part of the illegally acquired property has not been proved to the satisfaction of the authorized officer, such officer shall make an order giving an option to the person affected to pay, in lieu of forfeiture, a sum of money equal to the market value of such part the illegally acquired property has not been proved to the satisfaction of the authorized officer, such officer shall make an order giving an option to the person affected to pay, in lieu of forfeiture, a sum of money equal to the market value of such part the illegally acquired property has not been proved to the satisfaction of the authorized officer, such officer shall make an order giving an option to the person affected to pay, in lieu of forfeiture, a sum of money equal to the market value of such part.

50. Any person aggrieved by any decision of an authorized officer may within thirty days from the date of such decision appeal to the High Court.

51. -(I) Where any property is declared forfeited by the Commission or the person affected fails to pay the amount of money in lieu of any part of the property to be forfeited, the authorized officer may order the person affected or any other person who may be in possession of that property, to surrender or deliver possession thereof.

(2) Any person who refuses or fails to comply with an order made under subsection (1) commits an offence and the Commission may take possession of the property and may for that purpose use such force as may be necessary.

52.--(I) The Government of the United Republic may enter into an arrangement-

(a) with the Government of any other country, and make realization provisions for the recovery and property handing over of possessions to the Government of the United Republic, of any property in respect of which forfeiture has been made and which is in that country or for tracing and preserving any property in that country owned by or under the control of any person who has, or is suspected to have committed an offence under this Act; or

(b) on reciprocal basis with the Government of any other country in respect of the recovery and handing over of possession to the Government of that country of any property in the United Republic which is confiscated by or forfeited to the Commission of that country in consequence of the Commission by any person of an offence against a corresponding law of that country or for being and preserving any property in the United Republic owned by or under the control of any person who has, or is suspected to have committed an offence against such corresponding law

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section shall be construed as preventing the provision or obtaining of assistance in criminal matters otherwise than as provided in the Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Act, 1991.

PART VIII

(b) weighment, examination and classification according to the quality and consistence of opium and any deductions from, or addition to, the standard price made in accordance with such examination;

(c) confiscation of opium found to be adulterated with any foreign substance.

57. The Commission may give such directions as it may deem necessary to any department of the Government regarding the carrying into execution of the provisions of this Act, and that department shall comply with such directions.

58. The Commission may, by notice in Gazette, delegate, subject to such conditions and limitations as may be specified in the notice, such of its powers and functions under this Act (except the power to make rules) as it may deem necessary or expedient to any other authority or the Anti-Drug Commissioner.

59.-(1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the Commission may, by notice in the Gazette, make rules for carrying on the purposes of this Act.

(a) the method by which percentages in the case of liquid preparations shall be calculated;

(b) the form of bond to be executed for release of an addict convict for medical treatment under subsection (1) of section 39 and the bond to be executed by such convict before his release after the due admonition under subsection (2) of that section;

(c) the authority or the person by whom and the manner in which a document received from any place outside the United Republic shall be authenticated;

(d) the manner in which and the conditions subject to which properties confiscated or forfeited shall be managed.

(e) the disposal of all articles or things confiscated under this Act;

(f) the drawing of samples and testing and analysis of such samples;

(g) the rewards to be paid to the officers, informers and other persons;
(h) the conditions and the manner in which narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances may be supplied for medical necessity to the addicts registered with the Government and to others subject to the provisions of this Act;

(i) any other matter which is to be, or may be, prescribed.

60.--(l) All prohibitions and restrictions imposed by or under this Act on the import into the United Republic the export from the United Republic and transshipment of narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances shall be deemed to be prohibitions and restrictions imposed by or under the Customs Act, and the provisions of that Act shall apply accordingly.

(2) Where the doing of anything is an offence punishable under the Customs Tariff Act, 1976 Act and under this Act, nothing in that Act or in this section shall prevent the offender from being punished under this Act.

61. The provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of the Pharmaceutical and Poisons Act 1978 or the rules made thereunder.

62. Nothing in this Act or in the rules made thereunder shall affect the validity of any Act for the time being in force, or of any rule made thereunder which imposes any restriction or provides for a punishment not imposed by or provided for under this Act or imposes restriction or provides for a punishment greater in degree than a corresponding restriction imposed by or a corresponding punishment provided for by or under this Act for the cultivation of cannabis plant or consumption of, or traffic in, any narcotic drug or psychotropic substance within the United Republic.

63.--(l) The cultivation of Noxious Plants (Prohibition) Ordinance and the Dangerous Drugs Ordinance are hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken or purported to have been done or taken under any of the enactment repealed by subsection (1) shall, in so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of this Act.

64.--(l) If any doubt arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Commission may, by order published in the Gazette, make such provisions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act as appear to it to be necessary of expedient for removing the doubt.

(2) Every order made under this section shall, as soon as may be after it is made, be laid before the Parliament.

LIST OF PSYCHOTROPIC SUBSTANCES

NOTE: The names printed in capital in the left-hand column are the International Non-proprietary Names (INN). Other non-proprietary or trivial names also are given where no INN has yet been recommended or when such names are commonly applied to the substances. Also under international control are the salts of the substances listed in this Schedule, whenever the existence of such salts is possible.
