The Ordinance is amended—
(a) In section 40, by deleting the provisions of section 40 and substituting for them the following provisions:

40—(1) Any person who is desirous of convening, collecting, forming or organizing any assembly or procession in any public place shall not less than forty eight hours before the time when the assembly or procession is scheduled to take place submit a written notification of his impending assembly or procession to the police officer in charge of the area specifying:

(a) the place and time at which the meeting is to take place;
(b) the purpose in general of the meeting;
(c) such other particulars as the Minister may from time to time, by notice published in the Gazette, specify.
(2) Where a person submits a notification in accordance with subsection (1) he may proceed to convene, collect, form or organise the assembly or procession in question as scheduled unless and until he receives an order from the Police Officer in charge of the area directing that the assembly or procession shall not be held as notified.

(3) A Police Officer to whom a notification has been submitted pursuant to subsection (1), shall not give a stop order under subsection (2) in relation to the notification unless he is satisfied that the assembly or procession is likely to cause a breach of the peace or to prejudice the public safety or the maintenance of public order or to be used for any unlawful purpose.
(4) The Officer in charge of Police may stop or prevent the holding or continuance of any assembly or procession in a public place which has been convened, collected, formed or organized otherwise than in accordance with the notification under subsection (1) or in regard to which any particular specified by the Minister under paragraph (c) of subsection (1) has been or is being contravened and may, for any of the purposes aforesaid, give or issue such orders as he may consider necessary or expedient, including orders for the dispersal of any such assembly or procession as aforesaid.
(5) The Minister may by order declare that the provisions of this section shall not apply to any assembly or procession convened, collected, formed or organized exclusively for one or more of or a combination of one or more such purposes as may be specified in such order.

(6) Any person who is aggrieved by the terms of a stop order issued under sub-section (3) or, any order given by a police officer under sub-section (4), may appeal to the Minister whose decision on the matter shall be final".

(b) in section 41, by deleting the whole of that provision and substituting for it the following provisions:
"Powers

41. The officer in charge of Police to disperse may stop or prevent the holding or assemblies

continuance of any assembly or procession

in any place whatsoever, if, in the opinion of such officer the holding or assemblies wherever held.

continuance, as the case may be, of such assembly or procession breaches the peace or prejudices the public safety or the maintenance of peace and order and may,

for any of the purposes aforesaid, give or issue such orders as he may consider necessary or expedient, including orders

for the dispersal of any such assembly or procession as aforesaid".

(c) in section 42, by deleting the figure "(6)"

which appears therein and substituting for it

the figure "(4)"
(d) In section 43 -

(i) by deleting the figure "(6)" which appears in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) and substituting for it the figure "(4)";

(ii) by deleting the words "condition of a permit issued under the provisions of subsection (2)" which appears in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) and substituting for them the words "particular specified by the minister in accordance with paragraph (c) of subsection (1)";

(iii) by deleting paragraph (c) of subsection (1);
(iv) by deleting the fine of "five hundred" specified in subsection (1) and substituting for it a fine of "fifty thousand";

(v) by deleting subsection (2) and substituting for it the following provision:

"(2) Subject to the provisions of any order made under subsection (5) of section 40, where any assembly or procession in a public place has been convened, collected, formed or organized otherwise than in accordance with subsection (1) of section 40—

(a) every person taking part in convening, collecting, forming or organizing such assembly or procession shall be guilty of an offence and may be arrested without a warrant and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or to both such fine and imprisonment;

(b) every person attending such assembly or taking part in such procession, who knows or has reasons to believe that such assembly or procession has been convened, collected, formed or organized otherwise than in accordance the provisions of subsection (1) of section 40, shall be guilty of an offence and may be arrested without a warrant and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both such fine and imprisonment.
The Act is amended in Section 37 by deleting paragraph (b) of Subsection (2) and substituting for it the following paragraph:

"(b) destroy or dispose of that food in any other way at the expense of the owner of the food; and where the owner fails to comply with this provision, the authorized officer may destroy or dispose of the food and the expense shall be recoverable as a civil debt."
