(g) undertake work measurement exercises in order to determine the manpower need for the functions of each revenue department;

(h) set objectives and work targets for appropriate areas of work in each revenue department and monitor progress in achieving them;

(i) take such other measures as it may deem necessary or desirable for the achievement of the purposes and provisions of this Act.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of the functions and powers specified in subsection (1) and (2), the Board shall—

(a) have power to do all such acts and things as may appear to it to be necessary, advantageous or convenient for the efficient and effective discharge of its functions; and
(b) act in accordance with all such directions of a general or specific character as the Minister may by writing under his hand give to the Board.

7.—(1) The business of the Board shall be discharged at meetings of the Board which shall be held at least once in every month for the discharge of its functions, but may meet on any other occasions subject to the demands of the times.

(2) Seven members shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Board, and no individual member shall have authority to use the powers of the Board or act in relation to any matter unless he is so authorised by a quorum of them.

(3) Subject to this Act, the Board may make rules regulating its own procedure generally and, in particular, regarding the holding of meetings, the notice to be given of those meetings, the proceedings thereat, the minutes, the custody, production and inspection of keeping the minutes and other and things, and the opening, keeping, and auditing of accounts of the Board.

8.—(1) It shall be the duty of the Minister—

(a) subject to other relevant written laws of the United Republic, to determine and ensure the effectual application of the fiscal policies of the United Republic;

(b) see to the effective coordination of the policies for the collection and preservation of revenue.

9.—(1) There is hereby established a Secretariat of the Board which shall subject to this Act be the executive, technical and administrative organ of the Board.

(2) The Secretariat shall be headed by a Director who shall be appointed by the President from among officers of the Treasury appropriately qualified and experienced in revenue matters from among officers of the Treasury and shall hold office on such terms and conditions, and for such period not less than five years, as may be specified in the instrument of his appointment and shall be eligible for reappointment.

(3) The Director shall be responsible to the Board for the proper administration and management of the functions and affairs of the Board in accordance with the policy laid down by the Minister and the directions of the Board.

(4) Subject to the directions of the Minister in that behalf, the Board may, from time to time, appoint and employ on such terms and conditions as the Board may determine such other officers and employees as may be necessary for the effective performance of its functions.
PART III

POWERS AND OPERATIONS OF THE BOARD

10.—(1) In the discharge of its functions under this Act, the Board may—

(a) direct the revenue departments to furnish it with any information, reports or other documents which the Board considers necessary for the performance of its functions;

(b) give lawful instructions and orders to the revenue Commissioners in connection with the management, performance and operational policies of their respective departments;

(c) save as is otherwise provided in this Act, have no power to intervene in the determination of tax liabilities of particular taxayers;

(d) formulate and devise a system for securing, through internal audit systems, and verifying the correct processing by revenue departments of various cases before them, and in accordance with law and the relevant directions of the Minister.

(2) The Board shall, after consultation with the Minister, in relation to the discretionary power vested in the Minister, the Principal Secretary to the Treasury, a revenue Commissioner or other authority to exempt any person from tax or exempt, mitigate, defer or remit any tax, duty or other levy on the grounds of public or other interest, determine by order published in the Gazette, and specify the criteria or factors by reference to which any such exemptions, mitigation, deferment or remission may be granted.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other revenue legislation, where the Board determines and specifies criteria or factors referred to in subsection (2), no exemption, mitigation, deferment or remission shall be duly granted unless it complies with the provisions of the Order made by the Board.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other written law, the Minister shall, before granting any exemption, mitigation, deferment or remission obtain the opinion of the Board as to whether any particular case falls within the published criteria.

11.—(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other written law, where a revenue law has conferred power on a revenue Commissioner to refrain from assessing any person to tax or from recovering tax from him, then—

(a) the Board shall, by order published in the Gazette, specify criteria by reference to which the power shall be exercised by the revenue Commissioner;
(b) all references to the Minister by the revenue Commissioner in the exercise of the power shall, by virtue of this section and without further assurance, be construed as references to the Board;

(c) the Board may, from time to time, by notice published in the Gazette, determine the amount of tax beyond which a revenue Commissioner may not exercise this discretionary power of remission conferred on him by any law.

(2) In the exercise of its functions under this Act, the Board shall, subject to such restrictions, qualifications and instructions regarding procedure as the Minister may give in writing to the Board, have power—

(a) to consider applications for and grant remissions or abandonment of tax of amounts beyond the financial limits of the discretionary power of the relevant revenue Commissioner;

(b) to require a revenue Commissioner to submit returns to the Board, at such intervals not exceeding three months, as the Board may direct, of the identity of the tax payers, the reasons for the remissions, and the amount of tax remitted or abandoned by him.

12.—(1) For the purposes of the promotion of fairness, honesty, answerability and transparency in the administration of revenue laws, the Board shall, subject to this Act, regularly report to the Minister and submit an annual report to the National Assembly setting out, among other things, the total amount of tax remitted or foregone in respect of each of the criteria specified under subsection (1) (a) of section 11.

(2) For the more effectual implementation of this Part, the Board shall cause to be kept and maintained a full and clear record indicating—

(a) the names and number of persons in respect of tax exemptions are granted;

(b) the number of exemptions, mitigation and deferment of taxes and duties granted;

(c) the period for which and the amounts of taxes and duties exempted, mitigated or deferred.

(3) The report submitted to the Minister and to the National Assembly in furtherance of the purposes and provisions of this Act shall in showing the summary of the numbers of persons and amounts of exempted, mitigated or deferred taxes and duties have them analyzed between the different statutory classes of exemption and, in the case of exemptions by publication in the Gazette, or in the public interest, analyzed also by reference to the criteria specified by the Board.

13.—(1) There is hereby established the office of Commissioner to be known as Commissioner for Research and Investigation.
(2) The office shall be a public office and the holder shall be appointed by the President from amongst senior civil servants qualified for appointment by virtue of professional knowledge and experience in taxation, commerce, economics, law or financial or revenue, administration, as a member, and he shall be the head of a revenue department responsible for research and investigation and answerable to the Board for the purposes of this Act.

(3) There shall be appointed for the purposes of this Act such number and grade or categories of officers as may be necessary to enable the Commissioner to discharge his functions under this Act.

(4) The officers shall be public officers and shall be under the administrative control of the Commissioner, subject to relevant civil service laws.

(5) The functions of the Commissioner shall be to take such steps as may be necessary with a view to eliminate fraud and other forms of fiscal evasion in the revenue departments.

(6) Without prejudice to subsection (5), the Commissioner shall, where it appears to him that an offence has been, is being or is likely to be, committed under any revenue law—
(a) enquire or request the appropriate revenue Commissioner to enquire, into the matter; and
(b) submit a report on the facts and make appropriate recommendations to the Board.

(7) In the discharge of his functions under this Act, the Commissioner may—
(a) issue to any officer a warrant in the prescribed form for—
(i) the inspection of any premises, goods, or documents;
(ii) the seizure of any goods or documents;
(b) order or require any person to furnish any information or produce any document in his custody or control that the Commissioner may require;
(c) order any person to appear before him;
(d) subject to procedure prescribed by the Board, give to any revenue Commissioner such instructions as he thinks fit for the proper handling of any matter involving fraud or other forms of fiscal evasion.

(8) Where a revenue Commissioner, other than the Commissioner, has reasonable ground to believe that an offence of a type to be prescribed by the Board, has been, is being, or is likely to be, committed against any revenue law, he shall—
(a) forthwith report the matter to the Commissioner; and
(b) if so requested by the Commissioner enquire into the matter in accordance with such instructions as the Commissioner may give to him.

(9) In this section, the term “officer” means an officer appointed.

14.—(1) The Board shall, after consultation with the Minister, by notice published in the Gazette, provide for the establishment, maintenance and application of a system for the convenient and effectual identification of tax payers for the purpose of coordinated administration of the revenue laws of the United Republic.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of section 15, it shall be lawful for officers in the revenue departments to exchange or furnish each other with information or documents concerning any tax payer and for the purposes of the discharge of functions under this Act.

15.—(1) Every member, revenue Commissioner or officer of the Board, the Secretariat and every other person employed in the carrying out of the provisions of this Act shall regard and deal with all documents and information relating to the income, expenditure or other financial dealings or status of any tax payer or other person involved in any operations in furtherance of the purposes and provisions of this Act, and all confidential instructions in respect of the administration of this Act which may come into his possession or to his knowledge in the course of his duties as secret.

(2) The provisions of sections 132 and 133 of the Income Tax Act, 1973, relating to the maintenance of confidentiality and to the safeguarding of the integrity of the officers and other persons discharging functions in relation to or under that Act, shall apply, mutatis mutandis in relation to the maintenance of confidentiality and the safeguarding of the integrity of persons discharging functions under or in relation to this Act.
